System of Transliteration

In transliterating Arabic words, the following system, adopted by the Royal Asiatic Society, is followed.

- at the beginning of the word, pronounced as a, i, u preceded by a very slight aspiration, like h in English word ‘honor.’
- th, pronounced like th in English word ‘thing.’
- ḥ, a guttural aspirate, stronger than h.
- kh, pronounced like the Scotch ch in ‘loch.’
- dh, pronounced like the English th in ‘that.’
- ẓ, strongly articulated z.
- ḍ, similar to the English th in ‘this.’
- ṣ, strongly articulated s.
- ẓ, strongly articulated palatal t.
- ẓ, strongly articulated z.
- ḍ, a sound approached very nearly in the r ‘grasseye’ in French, and in the German r. It requires the muscles of the throat to be in the gargling position whilst pronouncing it.
- q, a deep guttural k sound.
- č, a sort of catch in the voice.
- ń, nasalized sound like ant in croissant.
And thy Lord has inspired the bee, saying, 'Make thou houses in the hills and in the trees and in the trellises which they build, Then eat of every kind of fruit, and then pursue submissively the paths prescribed by your Lord.' There comes forth from their bellies a drink of varying hues. Therein is a cure for men. Surely, in that is a Sign for a people who reflect. (The Holy Qur’ān, 16 [Al-Naḥl]:69-70)
Message from Şadr Majlis

My dear Anşar brothers,
As-Salāmu ‘Alaikulm Wa Raḥmatullāh

Tārīkh-i-Aḥmadiyyat [History of Ahmadiyyat] is an awesome read. It chronicles the story of—not only the inception of Majlis Anşarullah on July 26, 1950—but also the foundation of the first Anşar office or headquarters in 1956. Page 400 of volume 18 takes us back to a time when, on February 20, 1956, Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mau’ūd (may Allāh be pleased with him) laid its foundation stone in Rabwah.

In the USA, Majlis Anşarullah was born in the summer of 1981. Its rapid growth has since been well documented in our annual reports. We commemorated this momentous diamond jubilee by holding monthly congregational Tahajjud Prayers in Majālis, nationwide. (As I write these lines, my smartphone is reminding me about August’s congregational Tahajjud in Baltimore tomorrow morning). We interviewed all the previous respected Şadrān [plural of Şadr] of Majlis Anşarullah, USA, dug up historic pictures, compiled the instructions of Ahmādī Khulafā’, and published them in this commemorative issue of Al-Naḥl, which is now in your hands.

Monas Chaudhry of LA East and Zahid Mian of LA West were instrumental in getting and editing the content. Abdus Sami Khaliq of Charlotte, al-Ḥājj Dhul-Waqar Yaqub of Milwaukee, and Naveed Malik of Silver Spring provided the historic photographs. And Rafi Malik of Columbus was the editorial glue. I am deeply thankful to all of them. May Allāh be their reward, Āmīn.

As you flip through the pages of this 75-year commemorative edition, you will notice that the Majlis is now facing the opportunity of institution building.

Many of our members are over the age of 75. Many are struggling with isolation inherent in the modern cultures. How nice would it be if we had a spiritual sanctuary where our elders could live, socialize, and pray. How nice would it be if they could get together for five daily congregational Prayers!

Ḥaḍrat Mirzā Nāsīr Aḥmad—the then Nā’īb Şadr of Majlis Anşarullah—said, “Your nest is being prepared. It is your responsibility to provide twigs for this nest.” (Tārīkh-i- Aḥmadiyyat, vol. 18, pg. 402)

Now it is our turn, our responsibility, to build similar institutions (or “nests,” if you will) here in the U.S. Majlis Anşarullah, USA asks you for a twig and you can provide it by stepping forward to help. We are looking for a handful of people who can make this institution building their life’s mission.

With an unshakeable faith in prayers and Allāh’s support for the mission of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him), I most humbly request you to offer yourself for this task.

In 75 years, we sure have come afar. But our destination is yet farther.

Wassalām,

Faheem Younus Qureshi

Importance of Reading the History of Majlis Anṣārullāh

The title “Anṣārullāh” has an extraordinary significance in the history of Ahmadiyyat and there are many faith-inspiring chronicles associated with this title. Majlis Anṣārullāh is the auxiliary organization of the Jamā’at whose foundation was laid down by a wise, intelligent, and selfless leader like Ḥadrat Muṣliḥ Mau’ūd (may Allah be pleased with him). He then nurtured it with his own blessed hands. Maturing through many stages under the extraordinary guidance and patronage of the Ahmadi Khulafā’, this organization has now become a robust tree, and its branches have spread in many countries of the world.

The Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) has stated:

“Accurate history is an excellent teacher.”

In his famous lecture ‘The Beginning of Differences in Islām,’ expanding on the importance of history in the progress of a nation, the founder of Majlis Anṣārullāh, Ḥadrat Muṣliḥ Mau’ūd, Khalifatul Maśīḥ II (may Allah be pleased with him) said:

“Awareness of history is a very significant stimulant in the progress of nations. Any nation that is unaware of its historical traditions can never move towards its progress. Being familiar with one’s ancestors guides one to many lofty objectives.”

While mentioning the importance of the history of the Jamā’at, Ḥadrat Khalifatul Maśīḥ III (may Allah’s blessing be on him) stated that:

“To know about history, especially your own history, is essential for us, because the life of an individual or a Jamā’at is not dissociated from the past... Our established history is a prosperous history.” (The Daily Al-Faḍl, Rabwah, 10th July, 1983)

Ḥadrat Khalifatul Maśīḥ IV (may Allah’s blessing be on him) once stated:

“Without the study of one’s own history, neither can the present be illumined nor the future be clear; hence, the direction just cannot be set.” (The Daily Al-Faḍl, 17th July, 1982).

In light of these statements, it is requested that the members of the Majlis study history, derive strength from the virtuous examples of the elders, and pass on our everlasting and glorious traditions to the next generation. May Allah give us the strength to always keep in sight our responsibilities associated with our blessed name “Anṣārullāh” and that He may give us the ability to fulfill these obligations to the fullest. Āmīn.

Advice for Anşarullâh by Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd

In his Friday sermon of July 26, 1940 [Al-Faḍl, August 1, 1940], Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd (may Allâh be pleased with him) said:

If our claim were that the Promised Messiah (peace be on him) is a subordinate prophet in accordance with Sûrah Jumuʿah, and it were our creed that the Holy Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allâh be on him) is the messenger in whose prophethood and apostleship the prophethood of the Promised Messiah is included, then we will have to accept that the same mission is assigned to the Promised Messiah which was carried out by the Holy Prophet and the same duties are the responsibility of the Aḥmadiyya Community which were carried out by the companions of the Holy Prophet.

But it is surprising that, on one hand, our friends claim that the Promised Messiah is a perfect shadow and a follower prophet of the Holy Prophet, and it is the responsibility of our community to establish the same law which was established by the Holy Prophet, but on the other hand, a part of the community wants to tread a path other than that of the companions of the Holy Prophet, and does not at all adopt the way which was adopted by the companions of the Holy Prophet. Their example is that of an ostrich. When it is a question of status and rewards, they say that the Promised Messiah is not a separate entity from the Holy Prophet but rather his advent is the second advent of the Holy Prophet, and our status is the same as that of the earlier companions.

The companions had these five responsibilities, and the same five are our responsibilities.

1. To propagate,
2. To teach the Holy Qur’ān,
3. To show the wisdom of Sharī’ah,
4. To give good training,
5. To eliminate the weaknesses of a nation and put it on the path of progress.

If we do not carry out these five responsibilities while we call ourselves Companions, we are liars and pretenders.

Anyone who evades propagation, does not just evade propagation, but rather evades Aḥmadiyya altogether. Everyone who evades training others, he does not just evade training others, but rather evades Aḥmadiyya altogether. Anyone who evades explaining the wisdom of Sharī’ah, he does not just evade the explaining of the wisdom of Sharī’ah, but rather evades Aḥmadiyya altogether. Everyone who evades purification of souls or taking part in the suggestions to improve the financial or economic condition of the community, does not just evade purification of souls, or participation in the plans of the community’s financial and economic well-being but rather evades Aḥmadiyya altogether. Aḥmadiyya does not have any need for such person, neither is there any reason for such a person to stay in Aḥmadiyya. He deceives his own self by saying that he is an Aḥmadi. If he does not deceive himself then he is a liar and a deceit and is not capable of staying in the community of believers.

It is the responsibility of Majlis Anşarullâh that they conspicuously support the faith of Islâm through their actions.

In his Friday sermon of August 23, 1940 [Al-Faḍl, September 13, 1961], Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd (may Allâh be pleased with him) said:

First read the books of your community, memorize them, have their subject matter instilled in your minds. When you become well versed in your beliefs then read the books of the adversaries—not secretly, but rather openly in front of everyone and then refute the arguments of the adversaries emphatically. And stand up against others like a lion, so that no one may dream of deceiving you. Rather, when the adversary prods you, everyone’s heart should be filled with the conviction that you certainly will bring some prey.

Therefore, make your men brave like lions. Do not make them mice who hide in their holes. You will see yourself after experimenting that how much strength a community attains spiritually after this. The reality is that if we have truth then how can we be afraid of anything our adversaries say.

An adversary may lodge a million objections; God will annul all his objections.

Create wakefulness in the community. Teach them edicts of faith and religion. Let them read the views of others. If they do not read themselves, read to them, and then tell them the response to every objection.

A mistake often made by members is that the reply is wrapped in emotion, but the content of their reply is weak. The result is that when people see the original objection, they think that their people obfuscate as well. This method is completely wrong. You should explain the argument of the adversary with full strength. Do not neglect any aspect of it so that our and their people may not say that a portion of the objection has been dealt with, but other portions have been ignored.

In his Friday sermon of November 1, 1940 [Al-Faḍl, August 17, 1960], Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd (may Allâh be pleased with him) said:

This is the job of Majlis Anşarullâh, Khuddâm-ul-Aḥmadiyya, and Lajna Imâʾillâh that they try to create righteousness in the community. The first important item for this is belief in the unseen. They should create a belief in Allāh the Almighty, angels, Day of Judgment, prophets and on those glorious results that are going to appear in the future. Cowardice, hypocrisy, etc., arise in man only when he does not have in his heart the belief in the unseen. In this condition, man thinks that whatever he has if that is gone, he will have nothing, and for this reason he is afraid to make a sacrifice.

These three auxiliaries should try to instill the belief in the unseen in the heart of every Aḥmādi like a nail. His every thought, every utterance, every action should follow this belief.

This belief cannot be created without the knowledge of the Holy Qurān. People who are affected by the false and deceitful theories of philosophers and neglect the teachings of the Holy Qurān, they cannot accomplish anything. Therefore, this should be the responsibility of Majlis Ansharī, Khuddāmul-Ahmadiyya, and Lajna, and this should be their policy, that they establish these attitudes in the community, and continue an effort towards this goal in every possible way. They should instill these things in the hearts through lectures, lessons, and repeated exams. The books of the Promised Messiah be read again and again until belief in the unseen is created in the heart of every man and woman, young and old.

The second important item is offering Ṣalāt with its full requirements. Nowhere does the Holy Qurān explicitly command the rites of Ṣalāt or to engage in Ṣalāt, but whenever it directs attention towards it, it directs to establish Ṣalāt, and to establish means of offering Ṣalāt in congregation. This also includes offering Ṣalāt with sincerity. That is, it is not enough just to offer Ṣalāt, but it is important to offer it in congregation, and it is necessary to offer it in a way that leaves no deficiency in its offering.

Therefore, It is important to establish Ṣalāt, and in this regard, it is important that you yourselves offer Ṣalāt, have others offer Ṣalāt, offer Ṣalāt with sincerity and enthusiasm, be in a clean state, offer it in congregation and with full sincerity. Our members should pay special attention to this.

It is hurtful to me that I have learned about some people that they themselves offer Ṣalāt, but their children do not. It is very important that children also be made regular in Ṣalāt and they should be penalized for ignoring Ṣalāt.

Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mau’ūd (may Allāh be pleased with him) said in his Friday sermon of June 5, 1942 [Al-Faḍl June 7, 1942]:

I envision a great responsibility for Anşarūllāh. They are passing through the latter part of their lives. It is the period when man worries about leaving this world for next. When a person is going to the next world, he is particularly concerned about clearing his account. He is afraid of leaving this world while his account is in disarray, his actions unseemly, and does not have provisions that may be useful in the next world.

As the purpose of Ahmadiyyat is to strengthen the relationship between man and God, then during such period of his life, and during this part of his life, the extent of feeling a believer has in this respect, cannot be hidden from any person.

Young persons can imagine that if they are remiss in the service of humanity, Anşarūllāh will take care of it, but on whom can Anşarūllāh rely on?

If they will show negligence in discharging their duties, and will not succeed in creating the love of faith in themselves, and then in the hearts of the whole world, and will not make the propagation of Ahmadiyyat as their foremost objective, and if they will neglect the reality that they are to revive Islām in the world again, then after the period of Anşarūllāh during what age period will they carry out this work?

After the period of Anşarūllāh is the period of the angel of death. The angel of death does not visit to reform, rather it comes to have a person presented for the punishment or reward he has earned. So I once again remind Anşarūllāh that they should understand their duties.

In his Friday sermon of October 22, 1943, Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mau’ūd said [Al-Faḍl, November 17, 1943]:

Remember that your name is Anşarūllāh, that is, the helpers of God Almighty, meaning that you have been associated with the name of God Almighty, and God Almighty is eternal and immortal, and as such you should also try to be a manifestation of immortality.

You should continue to be the mark of Anşarūllāh, that is, always uphold the Khilāfat and ensure that this work continues in future generations.

There can be two ways to this end. One way is that your own children are properly trained and the love of the Khilāfat is inculcated in them. That is why I established Āṭfāl-Ahmadiyya and also created Khuddāmul-Ahmadiyya. These Āṭfāl and Khuddām are your own children. If Khuddāmul-Ahmadiyya is trained properly then Khuddāmul-Ahmadiyya will also be rightly guided, and if Khuddāmul-Ahmadiyya are rightly guided then the next generation of Anṣūrullāh will also be superior.

I have created a ladder. The first step is Āṭfāl-Ahmadiyya, the second step is Khuddāmul-Ahmadiyya, and the third step is Anṣūrullāh, and the fourth stage is God Almighty. If you impart proper training to your children and at the same time pray to God Almighty, then all these stages will be completed. If your Āṭfāl and Khuddām are well-founded and you also pray and establish a relationship with God Almighty, then there is no place for you lower than heaven, and whoever goes to heaven, he is safe in every respect. If the world tries to attack, it can only attack up to a hundred or two hundred feet in the air, but cannot attack the heavens. As such, if you reform yourselves and pray to God Almighty, then you will establish a relationship with God Almighty, and if you become true Anṣūrullāh and establish a relationship with God Almighty then Khilāfat will also remain among you eternally, and it will last even longer than the Khilāfat of Christianity.

After a lot of efforts, the strength of Christians is now almost twice that of Muslims, but the Promised Messiah has prophesied about you that God Almighty will increase your strength to such an extent that a time will come when the followers of other religions, like Hinduism, Buddhism, Christianity, and Shintoism, etc., will be reduced to insignificant numbers compared to you, that is, compared to you their numbers will be as insignificant as the small groups are today when compared to other people.

There is a popular story in our country that when a king was about to die, he called all his sons and asked them to bring a broom. They brought a broom. The king gave each of them a straw from the broom and asked them to break it, which they did immediately. Then he gave them the whole broom in one piece and asked them to break it. Each of them tried with full strength, but they could not break the broom.

At this, he said to his sons that when he gave a straw to each of them, they broke it very easily, but when he gave them the whole broom, they could not break it in spite of applying their full strength. Similarly, if they were scattered after his death, then everybody will be able to destroy them, but if they remained united, they will become like a strong staff, which no power on earth will be able to destroy. In the same vein, if you break the system of Khilāfat, you will lose all significance and the enemy will devour you. However, if you strongly hold on to Khilāfat, no power in the world will be able to destroy you.

You can see how poor our Jamāʿat is, but because of Khilāfat, it has great recognition and it has accomplished such things that other Muslims of the world could not.

I pray that God Almighty makes you real Anṣār because you correspond to this name. Therefore, just as He is eternal, similarly, may He keep your organization alive till the Day of Judgment, and may the Khilāfat also remain in the Jamāʿat, and may the soldiers of the Khilāfat also remain steadfast.

Our army is not armed with swords. Many of the Anṣār are so weak that they cannot even carry a club, but still they are the army of the Promised Messiah. It is because of them that Ahmadiyyat has spread, and, with the blessings of God Almighty, it will spread even farther in the future, and if the Jamāʿat becomes stronger, then God willing, its burden will also reduce, because individually one gets tired with time. You should try to spread Ahmadiyyat among your friends and relatives and preach to them so that next year the strength of our Jamāʿat is double its present strength. Through your prayers, piety, and righteousness, you should make such an impression on the youth, that they also start praying and are endowed with inspiration and vision. A Jamāʿat that has a greater number of people endowed with inspiration and vision is stronger, because the arguments put forward by an individual are not as satisfying as those set out by inspiration and vision. May God Almighty be with you.

Hadrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd (may Allāh be pleased with him) said in his opening address at the annual rally of Central Majlis Anṣūrullāh on October 26, 1956 [Al-Faḍl, March 21 and 24, 1957]:

You should try to uphold the status of Anṣūrullāh, and the meaning of Anṣūrullāh is that they [Anṣār] serve faith both financially and spiritually. I have told you that serving the faith spiritually means that you pay attention to God Almighty, and if a drop of rain falls on you, then you should pass it on to others.

Hadrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd said in his address of November 1, 1958 [Al-Faḍl, November 6, 1958, pp. 1-3):

You should also talk about God among your families and keep reminding about Him, so that God is always in our hearts forever, and His love becomes so sharp that not only do we become his lovers but He also becomes our lover.

Remember that nobody can bear the lover’s suffering. If you will become the beloveds of God, God will never abandon you. Rather, the enemy will not have yet come out of his house that you will see that God will have come down the empyrean and is guarding your house Himself.

If we have contact with God, God will also have contact with us, and God will always continue to show his care for us, and nobody will dare to look at us with malicious eyes because God’s angles will come forward immediately and will come between Him and us, and we will be provided such help that even great kings will crave for it.

May Allāh be with you and help you.

In his address of October 27, 1956, Hadrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd said [Al-Faḍl, March 26 and 27, 1957]:

Men should establish Lajna Imāʾīllah where Lajna Imāʾīllah has not been established. Many women have complained to me that men do not cooperate with them. Some stop them and tell them not to go to the meetings of Lajna. Some are such that they become a hindrance if the women want to establish Lajna Imāʾillāh. This is a dangerous matter. Until the women also serve the faith side by side with men, we cannot progress correctly.

The building of Islām that we erect outside, if the woman is not with us in its preparation, then she will destroy this building.

If you bring the child with you to the meeting, relate the faith to him and advise him, put matters of faith into his ears, but on going home, if that spirit is not in your women that Islām wants to create, then she will say to the child that his father is insane and takes him to the mosques for no reason, and that the child should not go to the mosque otherwise his health will be adversely affected so he should not do so.

This husband may give his child to live a frugal life, but the mother may start saying to the child that his father is giving him that kind of advice because he is stingy, and is calling it a matter of faith while the real reason is that his heart does not want to spend on his child, and that the child can be extravagant and that she is prepared to help him.

Ponder over this; in a household where there are two swords in action simultaneously, one attacks from the front and the other from the back, it is essential that there can be no peace where two swords are active.

Therefore, first, our community should create a habit of offering Ṣalāt in congregation.

Secondly, the Community should adopt the habit of working hard to discharge their responsibilities, and the task for which a person is designated. He should remember this principle that he is not going to give up even at the expense of his life. Until this kind of spirit is created, the community cannot progress fully.

Thirdly, Lajna Imāʾillāh should be established everywhere and the education and reformation of the women be addressed.

Fourthly, establish truthfulness in the community. A nation does not lose as long as truthfulness remains established among it. I observe that, in our community, there is weakness in this respect.

Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd said in his address at the annual convention on December 28, 1946 [January 16, 1947, page 2]:

Preach, preach, and preach until truth prevails and falsehood vanishes with all its misfortunes and evils, and Islām spreads to the whole world, and the world is under the rule of the Holy Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him). I invite you to this work. Now it is to be seen who is my helper in the way of Allāh.

The following message from Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd was relayed through tape recorder on the occasion of the 8th annual rally of Central Majlis Anṣārullāh:

“My name is Anṣārullāh. You have to uphold the respect for this name always. May God Almighty make you Anṣār in the true sense. Āmin.” [Monthly Anṣārullāh, Rabwah, November 1962.]

The following message from Ḥaḍrat Muṣliḥ Mauʿūd was read out by Maulana Jalalud-Din Shams on the occasion of the 10th annual rally of Central Majlis Anṣārullāh on November 13, 1964, at 3:00 P.M.:

“My message is that God may enable you to become Anṣārullāh in the true sense of the term. Khalīfatul Masīḥ, Rabwah.” (The Daily Al-Faḍl, November 15, 1964, p. 1)
Advice for Anṣārullāh by Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masiḥ III

Addressing Anṣār, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masiḥ III (may Allāh’s blessing be on him) said:

Then the question arises, how can a man emerge victorious from the test and the ordeal in which he is put? In this regard Almighty Allāh has told us two basic things: Do not think yourself righteous and do not claim to be righteous (The Holy Qur’ān, 53 [Al-Najm]:33).

Despite whatever spiritual height you have reached, always believe that the spiritual dress that God has given to you, is just because of God’s grace and kindness. If Allāh’s grace is taken away, even for a moment, the spiritual robe will separate from you. So everything that a person has is borrowed. Nothing is his personally.

The Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) says:

“Never claim that you are clean, as God says in the Holy Qur’ān (53 [Al-Najm]:33) that only God knows who is clean. When God cleanses a man then God becomes his protector and provider, he is nurtured in His lap just as a child is in his mother’s. It is at this time when God’s light falls on his heart and burns all worldly thoughts, and man feels a change in his heart. But he should not be satisfied because the power that has come in him is not permanent, though he thinks that it will never be lost. It is like a wall that is lit when sunlight falls on it. It does not mean that the wall will remain lit up permanently. There is a parable here. When a wall was lit up in sunlight, it boasted to sun, “I am also bright like you.” The sun replied, “when I will not be present at night, where will you get the light?” In the same way, the light which a person gets is never permanent, but rather temporary. To keep it, he needs to ask for forgiveness [Istighfār]. Prophets sought forgiveness regularly because of this fact. They feared that the sheet of Nūr [light] they had been given may be taken away from them. Prophets of higher status sought forgiveness more. He who is not bestowed with this power is always in danger...This is why prophets keep asking for forgiveness. The fact is that the actual Nūr is with Almighty Allāh; prophets or ordinary humans get it from Him only.” [Malfuzat IV: 96-97].

Then the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) says:

“In my view, it is the best way to purify oneself—there is no other possible way of purification except that a person should not be arrogant and haughty because of his knowledge, family, and wealth. When Allāh gives sight to someone then one can see that every guidance that saves him comes only from the sky, and for safety, everyone is dependent on light from the sky. The eye cannot see it without light from the sky, it is the inner light that takes away every darkness and creates righteousness and cleanliness. I tell you the truth that man’s righteousness, belief, supplication, and cleanliness—everything comes from heaven and it all depends on the grace of God, weather to continue or sever it.

Thus the true understanding is to kill the ‘self’ and thinking of the ‘self’ to be nothing and throwing oneself before God with utter selflessness and begging for his grace and kindness. He should ask for guidance in order to kill the feeling of selfishness and generate an urge to do good things. Then if at some time he gets a part of God’s grace and his heart is satisfied, then he should not become haughty and boastful, but instead he should progress in meekness and humbleness.

I am repeating these facts because God wanted, while creating this Jamā’at, to reinstate in the world His true recognition, which has been lost from the world, and the true righteousness which is not found in the present world.”

To maintain that stature at the Jamā’at level requires a great effort, and Jamā’at Aḥmadiyya should never ignore it. Apart from this there are two basic and important things that you should do.

The first is to direct your attention to inculcate in the heart of coming generations and those who will join the Jamā’at later, that all blessings, all good things, grace and every thing good can be earned only from the Holy Qur’ān. It is direly needed to cultivate the love of the Holy Qur’ān in the heart of new comers. God forbid if we fail to do this then God will bring other nations to do the job, who will hold the banner of Islām and Aḥmadiyyat high. And if we wish that our generations should also inherit a high spiritual status and are not deprived of the spiritual inheritance we have attained then I say it repeatedly that you should learn the Holy Qur’ān yourself and teach it to others. Try consistently to enlighten your children with Qur’ānic light.

The second thing is to pray because our efforts are useless and futile if God’s grace is not with us. Only our humble prayers can draw Allāh’s grace.

So by invoking humble prayers cultivate love of Qur’ānic teachings in the heart of your coming generations, so they are enthralled by Nūr, and angels may say to God: ‘O, God! the people who preceded us earned a Nūrānī status because of your grace and they inculcated the love of Qur’ānic teachings in the heart of their generations. They were not deprived of Nūr or those who followed them. Shower your Grace on new entrants as you showered your grace on those that preceded them.” (Excerpts from the concluding address by Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masiḥ III at the Central Majlis Anṣārullāh Ījtimā‘ on October 2015 Q1)
Allāh has chosen you to create a revolutionary change in the world

Unless you have created the great revolution in the world, you should not sit at ease lest it will be meaningless to be associated with Aḥmadiyyat. And to profess that Allāh has sent us a prophet and He has given a great son from among the followers of the Holy Prophet Muḥammad (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) with a grand mission, and this is our faith.

If a Nāṣir attends an Anṣārullāh Ijtima‘ and feels that he has performed all the duties—if he thinks like this—then he should be prepared to protect his life and valuable time. It would mean that he is neither ready to be a Nāṣir of the Jamā‘at nor its Khādīm. Of what good is such a faith?

Understand the true purpose of your life as an Aḥmādī

Appreciate the significance and importance of this and be prepared for it. Make every effort to understand and act upon it. When you reach the limits of your own sphere, it is anticipated, expected, and prayed that you will enter a larger area of responsibility and discharge your duties well, but if you turn your back on the real purpose upon reaching the limits of your sphere—confined to your own limited sphere—then your being there, or not being there, does not make any difference. Then your being an Aḥmādī or not being an Aḥmādī does not mean anything.

What benefit has Aḥmadiyyat got from you or what did you gain from Aḥmadiyyat? In the end, you neither got the love of Allāh nor the affection and mercy of the Holy Prophet Muḥammad (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) nor did you benefit from the prayers and glad tidings of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him). Why are you here? Why have you messed up your life? You could have spent the few days in the worldly comfort and enjoyment, although now you put yourself in the discomfort of the hell, but in reality, you neither got the peace of the world nor the blessings of hereafter. You would be at a big loss.

Understand your responsibility as a Nāṣir

To talk and bicker is not your responsibility. Pay attention to what goes on within your circle with the intent that you act upon it. It is your responsibility, with this ‘Azm [determination] and with ‘Azm-i-Ṣamīm [strong determination] to enlighten people within your circle with the understanding that you are being prepared for another special objective. Once you attain this Tarbiyat then you can discharge the rights associated with this purpose. If you do not perform in this manner, then it will mean that your previous Tarbiyat is of no use or benefit.

It is important to think whether you are also unwise given the fact that you had been prepared for a special objective and to some extent you got prepared for it, but then you forgot the very purpose for which you were trained.

Study the Holy Qur‘ān

You are born for the victory of Islam. If you are true in your faith then Allāh has ordered you to learn the Holy Qur‘ān. You will find that it has not only lessons for your guidance, but also information for your honor and respect.

The Holy Qur‘ān makes the claim that it has provisions of Dīhkr [remembrance of Allāh], advice, wisdom and counsel. Therefore, a person can obtain these benefits from the Qur‘ān.

The Holy Qur‘ān has all the means for blessings and rewards, honor and wisdom. The Holy Qur‘ān is a source of all blessings, honor, respect, wisdom, and grace. Only they benefit who ponder over it, learn it from others, and put it into practice. Unless these three things go together, the Holy Qur‘ān cannot offer you any benefit. If you do not practice these three things, you will not be able to perform your duties, which Majīs Anṣārullāh has placed on you and Aḥmadiyya Jamā‘at has entrusted with you. (Excerpts from the opening address by Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh III at Jalsa Anṣārullāh, Karachi, Pakistan, 1967)

The main work of Anṣār is of training

In his Friday sermon of August 24, 1979, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh III said:

Ramaḍān is coming to an end today, however, the responsibilities of Ramaḍān and its blessings do not end with the end of the month. They continue for the entire year. Ramaḍān is a type of a refresher course to build and enforce habits of prayers in hopes that a believer will not forget, and practice the lessons learned during Ramaḍān for the entire year.

Allāh’s will is that humans will continue to be steadfast and practice what they have learned during Ramaḍān. Conditions and circumstances will change but the teachings and principles will not—neither will the intentions.

Keeping this basic lesson in mind, I want to convey two points to Khuddām, two to Anṣār, and two to the Jamā‘at in general.

To Anṣār, my message is that obtain the agreement of Allāh with humble prayers and that your main responsibility is of training. Pay special attention to training so the future generations understand and fulfill their responsibilities. This training begins at home with your children and dependents and then infiltrates in the extended surroundings. From home to village; village to district; district to country; from country it spreads further and encompasses mankind at large. Your first responsibility is to pray. These prayers vary based on every individual’s nature of work, environment, and age. A major portion of a Khādīm’s prayer is Rabbe Zīdnī ‘Ilmā [O my Lord, increase me in knowledge]; he is still learning. He is gaining knowledge of the faith, ethics, and spirituality. He should say to Allāh: O Almighty, you have entrusted me with the responsibility to serve, however, I need the skills for this purpose; that I may be granted the necessities abound these skills. Grant me spirituality so I may know that I can cure my being and others with proper nourishment and training for their souls.

These are the prayers for...
Khuddām. For elders, the prayer is, “O our Lord, make our progeny and those who are connected with us, obedient servant of Yours, create your love in their hearts, make them the solace [coolness] of our eyes, let them not be a source of defamation of our good name. Let not others say that they themselves apparently reached an elevated status in the field of spirituality, but their children went astray; that their future generations fell from the elevated status of their forefathers.” These are their prayers. The responsibility of training progresses hand in hand with prayers. Just like for Khuddām, service and prayer proceed hand in hand, for Anṣār, the responsibility of training goes hand in hand with prayers.

During the opening address of the Central Majlis Anṣārullāh Ijtimā’ on October 26, 1979, Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ III said:

Islām is a beautiful religion and neither by words nor with actions has it ever created any means of pain anywhere. Instead, it has created means of happiness and satisfaction for all...Hence it is incumbent on Anṣār to mold their lives according to this example and train their future generations appropriately. Teach Islām to your children in your homes. Teach them the Holy Qur’ān. Narrate the beautiful words of the Holy Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) to them. Convey to them the teachings of Holy Prophet’s biggest lover, the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him). Read the books of the Mahdi yourselves and encourage your future generations to do the same so that we can fulfill our responsibility of establishing the supremacy of Islām in the entire world; and that we are able to fulfill this responsibility to the fullest; and that we are successful in the sight of Allāh. May Allāh make it so and the task that Almighty Allāh has assigned to us, He Himself grant us the strength to complete it. Āmīn.
The campaign for Waqf-i-Zindagi

In his opening address at the Ījtimā‘ of the Central Majlis Ansharullāh on November 5, 1982 in Rabwah, Pakistan, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV (may Allāh’s blessing be on him) said:

Today, I wish to exhort Ansharullāh regarding Waqf-e-Zindagi [dedicating one’s Life]. They need to pay special heed to this matter of Waqf. The Jamā‘at has a dire need for those who serve. The tasks requiring service are increasing and thus a shortage of workers is being felt in all departments. The elderly as well as the children are included in the announcement of ‘Man Anṣārī Ilālāh’ [Who are my helpers in the cause of Allāh?] mentioned in the verses of Sūrah Al-Ṣaff that were just recited in front of you today (61 [Al-Ṣaff]:15). The young are also included and so are the women. But I am addressing this especially to Anṣār, since Anṣār can fulfill some of our immediate needs.

We have many Anṣār who are nearing the age of retirement, and some have already reached that age and are now not able to find any work. What could be more fortunate for them than to voluntarily dedicate the rest of their lives for the service of Allāh’s religion?

Second, those friends who find alternate jobs and means of earning a living, I say to them that you have spent a large portion of your lives living, I say to them that you have spent a large portion of your lives earning in this world. Now there is a small challenge facing you for you to now present yourself for the service of your faith, and participate in fulfilling the increasing needs of the Jamā‘at. Because, the more Wāqifin that become available, the faster the triumph of Islām will happen in all the four corners of the world.

Furthermore, such Wāqifin are needed who are capable of traveling and serving outside the Markaz [Center]. This too will be a form of voluntary dedication [Waqf]. There is, thus, a need for such active and courageous Anṣār who present their names with virtuous intentions ready to serve wherever and in whatever condition they are assigned to work. They consider this [service] a gift and a blessing from Allāh. Even if they are assigned the most trivial duty they should perform it with happiness as servants of Allāh. Even if they do not have any work assigned to them, and their time is apparently being wasted, they should consider this as standing by for the sake of Allāh. What better life could there be than this? Being idle for the sake of Allāh is better than a thousand chores.

Waqf-i-Aulād [Dedication of Children]

Another aspect of Waqf is for the young ones to come forth. The Anṣār can provide a significant service in this respect. They can exhort them repeatedly. They can help them realize that a dedicated life [Waqf] is the most peaceful life. It is a life of utmost tranquility and satisfaction. Allāh never lets Wāqifin go to waste. Those Wāqifin who faithfully stay steadfast to their oath, Allāh will never abandon them. He does not even abandon their progeny. Eventually, the world too comes following them. The truth is that there is not a more satisfying life than a life being spent in the service of Allāh’s religion. Thus, Anṣār need to provide the best education to their children, tool them with the best worldly learning, and then ask them to present their names for the service of the faith. This is a general movement in which Anṣār of the Jamā‘at can help significantly. They can spread the word from house to house and start a new trend, so that many Wāqifin-i-Nau are presented and we are made to select and choose from among them. Inshā’Allāh it will be through such fervently devoted persons that a revolution will spread in this world. The world has been made desolate at the hands of the so called ‘wise’ and now it has arrived at the brink of complete destruction. The ‘crazed’ devotees of Ahmadiyyat have to save this world from this destruction. Therefore, we need such devotees.

Struggle against bad customs

Third, there is the Jihād [struggle] against bad customs. I assign this task especially to Ansharullāh. Among the requirements of Taḥrīk Jadid was one that members turn their lives towards simplicity, while safeguarding against a life of extravagance and indulgence. The path of service to Islām that we are treading requires that we leave aside not only the forbidden things, but also at times even permissible things so that such a society may be created which will help us in achieving our goal. Therefore, strive to create a noble change in your society. Start the work of uprooting those bad customs that slowly over time crept into our society. At wedding celebrations some bad customs are entering into our society. Similarly, lack of Purdah keeps spreading. A Jihād is needed against this. Thus, before theills of society seep any further, we need to strengthen our defenses and keep our society completely safe from the social maladies of today. I am hopeful that Inshā’Allāh Anṣār will play a significant role. Substantial changes will arise through their exhortations and training. Hence, this is not a very difficult task that is being assigned to Anṣār. This is actually equivalent to being counted among martyrs by putting just a smidgen of blood on yourself. With just a little bit of effort of Anṣār a glorious, vast, deep, and long lasting results will manifest. May Allāh, through His grace, give us that strength. May Allāh start speedily moving the Jamāʿat closer by the day towards its much anticipated and long awaited lofty aspirations. Now the heart is restless. May Allāh soon show us that day of triumph when the standard of the Holy Prophet Mohammad (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) is being raised above the world, and all other standards are lowered.”

In his address at the 22nd Ḥijrī 1331/Rashidul Ahmād offered his advice to Anṣār:

The key to moral training—worker’s state of heart and intention

First and foremost is the matter of training. For today’s topic I have not selected the details of training. Instead, for the benefit of my brothers who are also workers, I want to explain to them a reality which is the essence of the entire subject of training. The key to training is indeed the worker’s state of the heart and intention. You have heard the details of training on various occasions during this Ḥijrī. I want to share with you the type of workers Majlis Anṣārullāh requires and the methods they should adopt for the purpose of training; methods which, by the grace of Allāh, will hopefully bear good fruit. The central point is that your intentions should be pure and only for the sake of Almighty Allāh, and there should not be a shred of doubt of pretense in your approach. When I say this I don’t mean that such sick people whose approach has been overcome with pomp and vanity are working amongst us, God forbid! By the grace of Allāh, Ḥāḍrat Ṣāḥib al-Ḥāfiẓ Aḥmad offered his advice to Anṣār:

Continuously seek succor via prayer

Hence, addressing the pure and righteous beings, I state that on the surface, no matter how pure and clean the intentions may appear, avoid getting caught off-guard by the deception of your ego because many times Satan infiltrates the pure intentions of humans. If Allāh’s blessing is not included, if succor of Allāh is not sought via continuously praying then, unknowingly, the disease afflicts from one end and like a silent fire it gnaws at a person internally. He only finds out about it when it is beyond control. Hence, according to the teaching of the Holy Qur’ān, “defend your boundaries.” Only then will your heart be safe. Protect your boundaries in terms of your intentions. Do not even let the minutest bug of vanity and pomp corrupt your intentions. This is only possible with Allāh’s blessings and continuous prayers. Those who are experienced amongst you, they have witnessed that—per the teaching of the Promised Messiah—just like a person who enjoys betel leaves, and continuously flips the leaves to trim off the bad portions, in the same way until a righteous person does not guard his faith and intentions he will never be protected. The experienced ones know that this is indeed the truth. This secret has been explained in such a pure language that if forgotten, many a great workers are either deprived of the rewards of their good deeds or at least suffer damage. The key to this concept has been explained in Surah Fātihah’s first verse.

Give advice with the deepest humility

Hence, when you coach someone, be persistent and do so with humility. Never tire nor slow down. If anyone lashes out, continue to tenderly coach. If some members refuse to pay their Chanda, continue to advise them. Even if they badmouth you, feel merciful towards them and continue to advise and coach. If you do so, you would be following in the footsteps of the Holy Prophet. This method never leads to failure. I assert that you will be successful. This is the advice regarding which Allāh says: “surely, reminding is profitable” (The Holy Qur’ān, 87 [Al-‘Ala’:10)

This position is not given to any illiterate or uneducated person and does not mean that the advice of any illiterate person will never be wasted. Advice from ignorant and fools are many times not only wasted but can cause adverse effects. These can cause rebellion. Translation of this phrase will take into consideration whosoever is addressed here. First and foremost, the Holy Prophet is addressed in this verse. Allāh is addressing the Holy Prophet, “surely, reminding is profitable.” O Muhammad! I have appointed you on the position of giving advice. After giving due consideration to all your good attributes I have given you this authority. You are appointed at such a position that your advice can never go to waste. It will certainly be fruitful.

Give priority to Prayer (Ṣalāt) over everything else

...The first and foremost objective is that you should always give priority to Prayer in the field of action. Once you return, make an assessment of your surroundings [households]. Take stock of your children, and other family members; those younger than you and those older— and spend your days and nights establishing Ṣalāt. The establishment of worship is key to the establishment of the Jamāʿat; and due to your wavering of worship, the Ḥāḍrat Ṣāḥib al-Ḥāfiẓ Aḥmad will waver as well. I am sure that Allāh will not bring about such circumstances. By the grace of Allāh, the Ahmadiyya Jamā’at has a guarantee of a thousand years. However, this guarantee cannot be given for all auxiliaries. Normally, this guarantee covers the entire Jamā’at that if Allāh wills and by His grace and blessings, a majority of the Jamā’at will be righteous for a long time. But this guarantee is not for all auxiliaries. Hence, each auxiliary of the Jamā’at is faced with a fear. Therefore, if any Majlis or Jamā’at contains members who are not fulfilling the rights of Ṣālaṭ then you can rest assured that that Jamā’at or Majlis has been infected. Here also, protect the borders, i.e. in the practical field; once you have cleansed and protected your intentions then in the practical field continue with your efforts with the same enthusiasm. Regarding Anṣār it should not even be thought of that any member of Anṣār is not establishing Ṣālaṭ let alone that he is not even praying at home. Furthermore, Anṣār should not be thought of that they proclaim to be [we are the helpers of Allāh]Anṣārullāh [we are the helpers of Allāh] and at home their wives and children lead a life of oblivion and ignorance—and yet they themselves are not affected by it; this is impossible. Once you start feeling the pain at home, only then will you be able to get concerned about others. First, conduct this experiment at home and assess your intentions on this scale. If you do not feel extreme pain on the faithless condition of the members of your household, relatives and close acquaintances, then how can it be expected that those who are out of this realm are your brothers but their relationship with you is based on the brotherhood of belief; hence they are a step behind as opposed to those who are at home and are connected with you via a dual relationship. If you are not feeling the pain for the members of your household then whether you call yourself a Murabbī or whatever, you will not be Anṣārullāh because you will be devoid of the basic tenet of moral training. Hence, start at home first. Once you start this practice of training at home the burden of the rest of Anṣārullāh will be eased. Then the seekers of such households—where there are no worshippers—will search, but since all members of Anṣārullāh would have cleared their households therefore they will have to search elsewhere. But they will not find any household where Ṣālaṭ is not established. Further lessons on how to decorate your Ṣālaṭ and make it effective will be handed to you later. Whatever the Holy Prophet has said about Ṣālaṭ, what he has practically demonstrated is such a vast subject that it has no boundaries. Even if we continue to follow it to the Day of Judgment we will not be able to reach his [Holy Prophet’s] level. This is because Allāh has proclaimed the Holy Prophet to be the First. This is not for you to be disheartened; in essence, it is glad tiding that whatever our strength, we continue on this path. For us the final destination is not in sight—there is yet another destination ahead of us. Hence, keeping this glad tiding in sight, the Jamā’at achieves its goals as it continues to do so even today. There exists one such grand segment in the Jamā’at which is the center of the entire world; due to which life continues. There are such pious people surrounding the Khalīfah of the time that their prayers support the skies and maintain a world of spirituality. The rest of the world is spared just because of this segment alone. But we cannot settle on just a few people. We will have to replicate such worshippers within households who can worship with the décor and beauty which is required for the worship.

In a message to officeholders, dated January 1, 1979, as Ṣaḍr Majlis Anṣārullāh, Ḥaḍrat Mirzā Ẓāhir Ahmad said:

My dear brothers: As-Salāmu ʿAlaikum Wa Raḥmatullāhi Wa Barakātuhū.

This stream of time is pushing forward the vessels of our lives; those who are oblivious of this world, believers and disbelievers, good and bad; and for this perpetual motion there is no hurdle or avoidance; the only difference being that some vessels are such in this stream that are moving without purpose, randomly. Neither do they have a set direction nor any sense of destination, and no understanding of their purpose in life. Then there are many vessels that do have a set direction but are abound a midstream of disaster; towards a treacherous waterfall—unaware of their condition and end; as if they are merely treading forward so as to plunge with tremendous force into a deep ditch of deadly rocks, shattering to pieces; thus turning into a sad saga of humiliation, failure, deprivation, and death.

Besides these two types of lives there are some completely different types of vessels flowing in this grand stream of time with a fixed direction and purpose that is superior, exalted, and with high standards. They are steadily progressing towards success and prosperity, and with willpower and continuous struggle, they march towards noble purposes competing with each other. These lives are those of the believers. And their mission is the same as that specified by the Holy Qurān in the following words: “And every one has a goal which dominates him; vie, then, with one another in good works. Wherever you be, Allāh will bring you all together. Surely, Allāh has the power to do all that He wills.” (The Holy Qurān, 2 [Al-Baqrarah]:49) That is, “O community of believers! Your mission is to exceed each other in good works.” Keeping this aim in mind, and trusting Allāh and imploring Him only for help, we, Anṣārullāh, begin our new year. Our competition is individual as well as collective. It is with those near to us and those unknown to us. Our contest is internal and external. It is a constant struggle of one worker with another in surpassing him in good deeds; a continuous race that will only be discontinued with our last breath. Every chapter competes with another chapter, every province with province and country with country. Our competition is with Khuddāmul-Aḥmadiyya and with Lajna Imā’īllāh, and with any religious or non-religious organization that has good intentions. In this great race, prayer, determination, continuous struggle, and trust in Allāh are the fountainheads of our strength.

Hence, my Anṣār brothers, proceed forward and do not stay behind anyone in this blessed competition; and based on your individual courage and ability, compete in all those good works, with a winner’s spirit, towards which Allāh and His Khalīfah summon you.
Advice for Anṣārullāh by Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh V

On September 7, 2003, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh V (may Allāh be his helper) stated:

The actual aim and objective of our Jalsas and Ijtimāʿāt is that the hearts of all Jamāʿat members bow down absolutely towards the hereafter; and the fear of God is generated in their hearts, and that in their devotion, righteousness, and self-control they become an example for others, and extraordinary humbleness, humility, and uprightness is created in them. The world, having become lost in its disgraceful disbelief and its materialistic worship, has forgotten its true Creator, and those who apparently call themselves Muslim have at this time, in reality, gone far away from God. Trustworthiness and righteousness. Lying, haughtiness, arrogance, and conceit have made the roots of humanitarianism hollow.

In this age, Almighty Allāh has presented the objective of the establishment of the Aḥmadiyya Community as such that the love and affection for Almighty God is created in the hearts of people, and that the person who is going away from God, is made to understand this through love and affection, and is brought back closer to God. For the arrangement of this, an important responsibility falls upon us, that we establish our own relationship with Almighty Allāh and become His true worshippers. (Sabilur Rashād, Volume 4, p. 12)

In his address to Majlis Anṣārullāh, UK on September 14, 2003, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh V said:

Guidance was given for the attention towards five tasks for Anṣārullāh. Previously the establishment of Khuddāmul-Aḥmadiyya had taken place. The Jamāʿat’s attention was called towards five tasks, and they are:

1. To preach.
2. To study the Holy Qur’ān.
3. To present the wisdom behind the Conditions of Baitāt.
4. To perform good, moral and spiritual training.

5. To eliminate the nation’s worldly weaknesses, and to push it forward in the field of advancements.

Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh V strongly emphasized the particular point that if the performance of these five tasks was established within us, then, InshāʾAllāh, the speed of our progress can increase manifold. Ḥuḍūr expounded upon this further by explaining that these are also the very works of the latter-day people—as these were the five important accomplishments of the companions of the Holy Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him). These five important tasks are the ones we have to do in these latter days. Preaching is our responsibility. It is necessary to convey the message of truth. Under all circumstances, and in every way, we have to make the message of Islām and Aḥmadiyyat reach the world, and for that, every effort must be made. The age of Anṣārullāh is such an age at which a lot of facilities have come into being for preaching and there are reasons for that. Changes have taken place in one’s demeanor. At this age, normally, one has established control upon his passions. One’s way of thinking has also become mature. Then knowledge and experience have also reached a point from where a person can derive benefit for himself, and the methods of preaching can also be taught to the youth. So, in this way, the Anṣārullāh should become intense in the field of Da’wat Ilāllāh (calling towards Allāh).

Then the Holy Qur’ān is to be read. Regarding this, Anṣārullāh needs to pay attention themselves, and direct the attention of their children as well. Unless we read the Holy Qur’ān and understand it, and attach ourselves to its teachings, attach its teachings to our future generations, our future cannot be assured. Then the wisdom in the Conditions of Baitāt is to be presented; whichever commandments there are, they are to be presented. For this the acquisition of knowledge is necessary. (Sabilur Rashād, Volume 4, p. 14)

Inābat Ilallāh [returning to Allāh], means to worship according to the principles of humbleness, repentance, seeking forgiveness, and bowing in the presence of God. The name of worship is according to these principles.

During the concluding address of the 24th Annual Ijtimāʿ of Majlis Anṣārullāh, Germany on May 31, 2004, while delivering an extremely inspirational address on the subject of Inābat Ilallāh, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh V explained:

The actual aims of Anṣārullāh include the propagation of Islām, the moral and spiritual training of children, and solidarity with Khilafat. Inābat Ilallāh means, while showing humbleness, while repenting and performing Istighfār, to bow down in the presence of Almighty Allāh, and to elevate our worship according to the principles that He has told us. Anṣār are in that phase of life in which it is necessary to bow towards Almighty God. As age keeps on advancing, love for God keeps strengthening. The hearts of the worldly people also become mellow. However, for an Aḥmadi, the reason for obeying the Imām of the age is because of becoming more bound to giving the rights of God and the rights of His creation. Special attention should be given towards the offering of Salāt and optional Prayers. Since Almighty Allāh has given the commandment of Aqīm -us-Ṣalāt [the establishing of Ṣalāt], prayers are a great means of attracting the Mercy of Almighty Allāh. For Inābāt Illāh, prayers, Ṣalāt, and Nawāfil [optional Prayers] are needed. Beside the five daily Prayers, we should perform Tahajjud as well. Almighty Allāh explains:

“Observe Prayer at the declining and paling of the sun on to the darkness of the night, and the recitation of the Qur’an in Prayer at dawn. Verily, the recitation of the Qur’an at dawn is specially acceptable to God.” (The Holy Qur’ān, 17 [Bani Isrā’îl]:79)

Pray in light of this verse.

Ḩudūr presented the Holy Prophet’s (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) instructions that Ḥadrat Abū Hurairah (may Allāh be pleased with him) has related: The Holy Prophet has said that on the Day of Judgment, first of all, you will be questioned about Ṣalāt, whether you came for Prayers and performed ablutions thoroughly without hesitation. Some people do offer their Prayers, however in the conduct of their business, they are dishonest. Your Prayers should be such that they protect you.

Ḩudūr mentioned about the pledge of 500,000 Euros, on behalf of Majlis Anṣārullāh, Germany, in the assistance of the scheme of building 100 mosques.

Ḩudūr said: It is a very important responsibility of Anṣārullāh to perform the moral and spiritual training of the children and for that training it is extremely necessary to present one’s own pious example. Training must be done from the beginning of childhood. Make children habitual in their Prayers from the age of seven. Children watch their own parents offering Sunnah Prayers and optional Prayers in the house. Instruct adolescents in a loving manner to offer Prayers regularly. Some parents do not offer Prayers with regularity. In this situation, how are the children going to offer their Prayers? If, at this age, Prayers are not performed, then when are they going to be performed? The Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) said that the person who omits even one of the 700 commandments of the Holy Qur’ān, he is not from my community. For this reason it is absolutely necessary to keep studying the Holy Qur’ān, and to better understand the books of the Promised Messiah. Under a special program, Majlis Anṣārullāh must arrange for the reading of the books of the Promised Messiah. For the sake of your own children, first reform yourselves. Have gentle manners with your wife, and treat children with love, and become true to your slogan, Ṣāḥīḥ Anṣārullāh [we are the helpers of Allāh].

Inshā’llah, Islām will make progress. The promises Almighty Allāh has made with the Promised Messiah will, in any event, be fulfilled. For this reason it is necessary that each one of us become a Muttaqī [righteous person] so that we also have a part in this progress. Have mercy on your own selves and become devoted to this path, and become entirely of Allāh. May Almighty Allāh grant us the strength to adorn our lives according to the teachings of the Promised Messiah, ‘Amīn. (The Monthly Al Nāṣīr, Germany, August 2004)

Summary of matters of guidance for officeholders

...Then, in the end, I shall present a summary again of whatever I have spoken about for the officeholders, and all of the previous Khulafā’ have continued saying this. However, after some time passes, some topics are not remembered. This is the reason why regular reminders have to be given; for all those who become new officeholders, who do not understand properly.

Summary of directives for officeholders:

(1) ...it is required that the officeholders themselves show the highest degree of obedience and to give perfect obedience and respect to their superior officeholders. If you do this, then those under you, whether they are Jamā’at members or workers, they will give you their perfect obedience and respect.

(2) ...Remember to present yourselves with gentleness towards others. You have to win their hearts, be part of their happiness and sadness. If you do not fulfill these natural requirements, then it means that arrogance is in your heart.

(3) ...Umarā’ [plural of Amīr], officeholders, or central volunteers should pray for whosoever is under their direction or is in a supervisory role that he has nobility of character, the spirit of obedience to the Jamā’at, and respect the administration of the Jamā’at.

(4) ...Never give preferential treatment in any matter to any Jamā’at member; keep in mind also that some people are very crooked. I have knowledge of such people who have made it very difficult for the Umarā’, or officeholders, or Jamā’at administration. Nevertheless, tolerate their audacity as far as can be tolerated, and do not make any kind of complaint regarding the trouble they cause. Do not even think of ever taking any kind of revenge. Pray for them and pray for help from Almighty Allāh.

(5) ...That the strength, firmness, and safety of the Jamā’at administration should be given top priority and you should always keep making efforts towards this. Never let yourself be surrounded by sycophants [yes men]. Justice cannot be expected from officeholders who are surrounded by such people. Such officeholders become like putty in the hands of these people. That is why the Holy Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) has given instructions to recite the prayer that may Almighty Allāh never let us be surrounded with bad counselors and advisors.

(6) ...Then this is also a point worth remembering that as long as no blame falls on the sanctity of the Jamā’at administration, use of pardon and kindness should be preferred. Ask forgiveness for those who are accountable for reformation. This is for officeholders. However, in the end I say to Jamā’at members who are not officeholders that they have a huge responsibility: that your obligation is obedience, obedience, and only obedience accompanied with regular prayers for that. May Almighty Allâh grant us the strength to understand our own responsibilities. (Khûtbat-i-Masroor, Volume 1, pp. 531-532)

Before raising the slogan of Naĥno Anšārullâh, ponder over its meanings

Hence, each and everyone among us should evaluate ourselves before raising the slogan of Naĥno Anšārullâh [we are the helpers of Allâh]. Have we even pondered over how deep and vast a slogan it is? What kinds of sacrifices will have to be given for this? What are these sacrifices? As I have previously stated, there is not any battle, any cannon, or gunpowder, or a hail of arrows that anyone has to stand in front of. Unlike the eminent companions of the Holy Prophet, you are not required to sacrifice your lives. Yes, these sacrifices also occur but rarely. Allâh Almighty takes these few sacrifices to set examples. But the sacrifices that have to be made in this age, are such that the highest levels of our prayers are to be established. Give the rights of your own society. Monetary sacrifices are to be given.

Bring your worship to life

Hence, it is the duty of Anšārullâh, and I say it over and over again, to bring your prayers to life. For yourselves, for your children, for your society, for the suffering mankind, for the victory of Islâm: beseech prayers with intensity. Generate the worry of the afterlife in your hearts. When the worry of the afterlife will increase, then the attention towards giving the rights of society will also increase. Pay attention to reading and teaching the Holy Qur’ân. Regarding this, Anšārullâh has made programs and has listened to my sermons. While making sacrifices, give everyone their rights, and try to give the rights to whom they belong. Instead of keeping an eye on the shortcomings of others, look at your own shortcomings. Then reformation can also take place, and attention towards reformation will also be created. Then pay attention to financial sacrifices and fulfilling your pledges. You have pledged to keep sacrificing for the strengthening of Ahmadiyyat and its propagation—this pledge which was just recited, think about it, ponder over it. Ask yourself, how much have I tried to fulfill this pledge? How much have you made yourselves ready for it?

Every member of Majlis-i-‘Âmila should join the Scheme of Wašiyyat

During the addresses in the last days of Jalsa, I have assigned Majlis Anšārullâh the task of increasing membership in the scheme of Wašiyyat. Make a concerted effort regarding this. There is a very large population of Anšâr in category of Šaff Dom. Remember that your directives will only be successful, will only be useful, when, upon hearing the call of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him), you will join this scheme, saying Labbaik. For those who have joined it, the Promised Messiah has offered a lot of prayers. And, to whoever these prayers become applicable, his worldly affairs will be taken care of, and his afterlife will also be taken care of. Hence, pay attention in this regards as well. And, first of all, I would say here that all the officeholders should join in this scheme—from National ‘Âmila members to local ‘Âmila members. When every member of an ‘Âmila joins this scheme, only then would he become worthy of telling others about it. (Sabîlur Rashâd, Volume 4, pp. 52-53)

Haḍrat Khalîfatul Masîh V (may Allâh be his helper) instructed that for the victory of the Islâm Ahmadiyyat and for the safety and security of Jamâ‘at, members keep voluntary fast once a week and offer two Nawâfîl every day. He also suggested offering Tahajjud prayers individually and when possible in congregation. He also suggested to regularly repeat those prayers which were initiated at the time of Jamâ‘at Jubilee and then at the time of Khilafât Jubilee. He added few more prayers. All the prayers are noted at the end of this article.

Haḍrat Khalîfatul Masîh V (may Allâh be his helper) sent the following message for the first annual Ijtimâ‘ of Majlis Anšârullâh, Liberia held on November 8-9, 2008.

“Adopt the teaching and guidance of the Holy Qur’ân. Follow the Sunnah of Prophet Muḥammad (may peace and blessings of Allâh be on him) and the Sunnah of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him). Peace in the world depends on adapting Islamic teachings because Allâh has given the name “peace” to this way of life. For the peace in the society, eliminate hatred and proclaim peace by practicing it. One of the important responsibilities of Anšâr is to teach the Holy Qur’ân to members of all ages. It will be only possible if Anšâr themselves learn the Holy Qur’ân. So to deliver this responsibility, Majlis Anšārullâh should seriously make arrangements. Make sure that every Nâṣîr is a part of this program either as a teacher or a student...I strongly urge you all to safeguard Khilâfat and keep a strong relationship with it. Upon you, this is a blessing of Allâh while rest of the world is longing for it. All the blessings of Allâh are found in being loyal to the Khalifah. He is a shield against all the calamities and sufferings. All our developments depend on our strong attachment to Khilâfat.” (Sabîlur Rashâd, vol. 4, pp. 237-238)

On the 50th anniversary of the monthly Anšârullâh [Rabwah], Haḍrat Khalîfatul Masîh V (may Allâh be his helper) sent the following message for Anšâr:

“Among the auxiliaries of the Jamâ‘at, Majlis Anšârullâh is such that its members have already reached the age where the signs of the end of life start appearing and they see that they are moving towards the end. The fear of the end compels a Nâṣîr to bow down to Allâh in purity and find His nearness. One of the sources is the obligatory [five daily] Prayers that have a special status among all forms of worship. A few days ago, we passed through the Holy month of Ramaḍân and I hope that even the weak developed some change in them and all must have paid attention towards the obligatory [five daily] Prayers. The Holy Prophet Muḥammad (may peace and blessings of Allâh be on him) has declared the obligatory [five daily] Prayers the center of all worship. In it, are included all the prayers...so my first advice is to be regular in obligatory [five daily] Prayers and be an example for your next generation. The second advice is to regularly recite the Holy Qur’ân, study Aḥâdîth, and books of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him). Every time we study these three sources, we get a new meaning for our life. The study of these three will, on one hand, increase your understanding and absorption of knowledge and, on the other hand, it will become an example for your progeny and will also help you in calling others towards Allāh. The third advice is to remind you about financial sacrifices for the sake of Islām. I reminded Anṣār of level two to join the system of Waṣiyat; all chapters must work on it. The Promised Messiah also prayed for Islām and striving for the next generations by striving hard and making a program where every member should join the scheme of Waqf-i-‘Ārḍī (short-term devotional) and do a minimum of two weeks dedication purely for God. Other than that it was obligatory upon Majlis Anšārullāh to dedicate a little time on a daily basis for the daily needs of the Jamā’at. Anṣār should pay attention to this also and make a program where every member should spare some time on daily basis to spend in the cause of Allāh. Meet on a daily basis and discuss matters of mutual interests. [They should] pay attention to reading and teaching of the Holy Qur’ān. There are many issues of training, optimization, and reformation on which Anšārullāh should be given some work to do. To some people, God has given the ability to spend in the cause of Allâh over and above their Chanda. Similarly, I believe we should also inculcate the habit of spending time in the cause of Allâh on daily basis...To revigorate the Jamâ’at, it is necessary that we first revigorate ourselves. Our presence should be so evident that there should be no need for anybody to ask or tell that there is a Majlis Anšārullāh in the area. Rather, our work, our explication, and our prayers should speak for themselves and attract people. They should consider that these are the people who are always lost in the remembrance of God and praise Him. These are the people who are benevolent and are the one who share others grief and are always ready to help. And if they see any grief, suffering, or trouble they always come forward and help as much as they can.

Hence be mindful of the training of your progeny and do not let them catch the wrong attitudes of the society. Instill in them the fear of Allāh. Make them steadfast in obligatory [five daily] Prayers. Remind them to read the Holy Qur’ān daily. Their good deeds and service of Din [religion] should be a reason of pride for you. If you leave behind a God-fearing and religious progeny it will be a provision for you in this world and hereafter also. (Monthly Anšārullāh, Rabwah, Nov. 2011, pp. 9-10)

In his address to Majlis Anšārullāh, Rabwah on Oct. 28, 1966, Ḥadhrat Khalifatul Masîh III (may Allāh’s blessing be on him) said:

“There are two types of responsibilities for Anšārullāh. As a Jamā’at member delivering responsibilities of Jamā’at better than others and secondly as a Nāsîr delivering the Majlis Anšārullāh responsibilities.”

In his address to Majlis Anšārullāh, Karachi on July 7, 1967, Ḥadhrat Khalifatul Masîh III said:

“Firstly our progeny and those who will join later should be directed towards this realization that all the blessings, all the beauties, all the mercy, and all the goodness can be achieved from the Holy Qur’ān. It is necessary for us to generate love for the Holy Qur’ān in the hearts of newcomers and newborn members. God forbid, if we did not do so then God will raise some other nations who will do that...And spread the light of the Holy Qur’ān around them with your prayers so that the Angels can see you wrapped in the light of the Holy Qur’ān and they can see your progeny and the newcomers wrapped in the light of the Holy Qur’ān...So consider the field of training a real opportunity and with this intention and sincerity acquire the training that as an Aḥmadi you should be able to deliver and fulfill your responsibility in the real sense.” (Anšārullāh, July 7, 1967)

In his address to Majlis Anšārullāh, Rabwah on Oct. 29, 1967 Ḥadhrat Khalifatul Masîh III said:

“To keep the Jamâ’at awake it is necessary to study the newspapers and journals issued by the Center. And it is the responsibility of Anšārullāh to study and compel others to study those newspapers and journals. It is the responsibility of Majlis Anšārullāh to keep the Jamâ’at awake...To keep the Jamâ’at awake, it is necessary that everyone must keep a strong attachment with the Khilâfat...To awaken or to keep the Jamâ’at awake, it is important to visit the Center, read the newspapers published by the Center, and keep a strong attachment with Khilâfat and the Center. For this, we have to strive hard because it is our responsibility, our right, and a mercy of God on us...It is the responsibility of Majlis Anšārullāh to keep the Jamâ’at awake. To do so members should join the scheme of Waqf-i-‘Ārḍī (short-term devotional) and do a minimum of two weeks dedication purely for God. Other than that it was obligatory upon Majlis Anšārullāh to dedicate a little time on a daily basis for the daily needs of the Jamâ’at. Anṣār should pay attention to this also and make a program where every member should spare some time on daily basis to spend in the cause of Allāh. Meet on a daily basis and discuss matters of mutual interests. [They should] pay attention to reading and teaching of the Holy Qur’ān. There are many issues of training, optimization, and reformation on which Anšārullāh should be given some work to do. To some people, God has given the ability to spend in the cause of Allâh over and above their Chanda. Similarly, I believe we should also inculcate the habit of spending time in the cause of Allâh on daily basis...To revigorate the Jamâ’at, it is necessary that we first revigorate ourselves. Our presence should be so evident that there should be no need for anybody to ask or tell that there is a Majlis Anšārullāh in the area. Rather, our work, our explication, and our prayers should speak for themselves and attract people. They should consider that these are the people who are always lost in the remembrance of God and praise Him. These are the people who are benevolent and are the one who share others grief and are always ready to help. And if they see any grief, suffering, or trouble they always come forward and help as much as they can. If you perform like that then you can attract the world towards you, and those who are not ready to listen to you today, will listen to you and Allāh will turn many hearts to right direction...We should spend our lives as an active Jamā‘at and as an active Majlis. We should correct ourselves and be mindful of the training of our youth, our elders, and our progeny, and those who are under our responsibility. For that, the recitation and teaching of the Holy Qur’ān is very important...The Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) had an Arabic revelation which he translated (in Urdu) himself: ‘The one who will leave the Qur’ān, We will cause him suffering with worthless progeny who will be unbelievers. They will fall on this world and they will not have any share from My worship. Such progeny will meet a bad end and will not find repentance and fear of God.’

So if you want to save yourself from the wrath of God and if you do not want your progeny to be worthlessly evil—who will be falling on this world and will be ignorant towards God—then it is necessary for you that when you learn the Holy Qur’ān, teach it to your progeny also.”

In his address to Majlis Anṣārullāh, Karachi on March 2, 1980, Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ III said:

“Basically we have only one responsibility and that is to spend our life as a role model with argument, signs, miracles, love, morality, services to humanity, by exposing the beauty of Islām and showing the power of goodness. We will then attract others towards Islām. We have to attract others just as a magnet pulls iron towards itself. Every Ahmādī has to attract non-Muslims and bring them to the fold of Islām...Your destination is the heart of every non-Muslim; you have to reach there. Here I change the example. To every Ahmādī the Promised Messiah has given a candlestick and has ordered them to go to every non-Muslim and remove the darkness from their hearts and make it bright.

Do not rest unless you have inculcated goodness in the next generation. It is the first responsibility of Anṣār that they should not rest unless they have transferred all that they have acquired in the form of goodness. This is not possible without prayers...The first condition is to have clear intentions and piety.”

The first thing is glory to God; all the world sings His praise. He likes piety so we should live a pious life. All our programs should revolve around training for piety, so that we start living a pious life. Adopt the attributes of God. Our programs should revolve around adapting God’s attribute of raising children. We have to raise all the children in the Islamic way of life. It is our responsibility to enhance the ability of every child physically, mentally, morally, and spiritually.
Prayers Prescribed by Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ V (may Allāh be his helper)

In the name of Allāh, the Gracious, the Merciful.

All praise belongs to Allāh, Lord of all the worlds,
The Gracious, the Merciful,
Master of the Day of Judgment.
Thee alone do we worship and Thee alone do we implore for help.

Guide us in the right path —
The path of those on whom Thou hast bestowed Thy blessings, those who have not incurred Thy displeasure, and those who have not gone astray.

O Allāh send Your Mercy upon Muḥammad and his progeny as You have sent Your Mercy upon Ibrāhīm and his progeny.

Truly, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious.

O Allāh send your Blessings upon Muḥammad and his progeny as You have Blessed Ibrāhīm and his progeny. Truly, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious.

Holy is Allāh with His Praise; Holy is Allāh and He is the Greatest. O Allāh send mercy upon Muḥammad and his progeny.

O our Lord, pour forth steadfastness upon us, and make our steps firm, and help us against the disbelieving people.’

O Allāh! we make You a shield against the enemy and we seek Your protection against their evil designs.

Seek forgiveness from Allāh for all the sins and turn to Him wholeheartedly.

O my Lord, everything is subservient to You. So my Lord protect me, help me, and have mercy upon me.

O Allāh! now accept my prayers and dilute Your and my enemies. And fulfill Your promise and make your servant victorious. And show us time of Your promises and draw Your sword and spare not wicked from among the disbelievers.

Guidelines for Group Photos

When taking group photos at events such as local and regional Ijtimā‘at, the following protocol should be followed to ensure that the group photos are in line with the guidelines provided by the Publication department of Majlis Ansārullah, USA.

For local Ijtimā‘: Front row should have odd number of chairs—5, 7, 9, 11, etc. (if no chairs are being used then odd number of standing people). Nāẓim (if attending) otherwise Za‘īm should be seated/standing in the middle; local President, if present, on the right, then right to the local President should be Nā‘ib Za‘īm Ṣaff Dom; Nā‘ib Za‘īm Ṣaff Awwal on the left to the Za‘īm, then Muntazīm ‘Umūmī. After that other ‘Āmila members or elders can be seated.

For regional Ijtimā‘: Front row should have odd number of chairs—5, 7, 9, 11, etc. (if no chairs are being used then odd number of standing people). Representative of National ‘Āmila should be seated/standing in the middle; regional Nāẓim on the right, host Majlis’ Za‘īm on the left. Zu‘amā of other Majālis should then be on either side to fill the chairs and then elders. If a missionary is present, he should be seated right to the person sitting in the center (Za‘īm, regional Nāẓim, or National Representative). The protocol should also be followed for group photos taken at Majlis’ other programs—such as general meetings.

Current Tajnīd: 2,835
In the summer of 1981, I was appointed as the first Za‘im A’lā of Majlis Anšārullāh, USA by the Ṣādīr of Central Majlis Anšārullāh, Rabwah, Pakistan, Ḥaḍrat Šāḥibzādah Mirzā Ṭāhir Ahmad (may Allāh’s blessing be on him). Respected Al-Hajj Ataullah Kaleem was the appointed national Amīr and Missionary in Charge of the USA Jamā’at at the time, and it was upon his recommendations that the Center appointed me to this national position. This enabled me to further serve as a member on the Board of Directors of the USA Aḥmadiyya Movement in Islām.

Before my appointment to this office, Majlis Anšārullāh did not exist in the United States. Therefore, it became my duty to organize and establish a solid foundation for Majlis Anšārullāh in the USA. I formulated a small team of local assistants and together we carried out the work required of the U.S. Anṣār. As there was no previous model or structural prototype for me to rely on, I had to solely rely on the prayers of Ḥaḍrat Šāḥibzādah Mirzā Ṭāhir Ahmad every step of the way.

In 1983, I was elected and approved to serve again as Za‘im A’lā, of Majlis Anšārullāh, USA. With the prayers of Ḥaḍrat Šāḥibzādah Mirzā Ṭāhir Ahmad—who had by then become Khalīfatul Maṣiḥ IV (may Allāh’s blessing be on him)—, I continued to serve Majlis Anšārullāh, USA for two more years until the end of 1985. At the 1985 USA Jalsa Sālāna held at the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, respected Fazal Ahmad of Boston Majlis was elected as the new Za‘im A’lā of Majlis Anšārullāh, USA. After approval from the Center, he began his term of service in January of 1986.

During these years, the auxiliaries were primarily led by the Central Ṣādīr who was stationed at the Center in Rabwah, Pakistan. In each respective country, the Amīr was considered to be an ex officio Nā’īb Ṣādīr of the auxiliary. In the years to come, some countries appointed a separate national head of the Anšārullāh auxiliary, and this appointee was given the title of Za‘im A’lā Anšārullāh. Later in the early 1990s, however, all of the existing auxiliaries were placed directly under Khalīfatul Maṣiḥ rather than the Central Ṣādīr or Nā’īb Ṣādīr (Amīr of a country). Along with these changes, the title of Za‘im A’lā Anšārullāh was dropped, and the leader of the Anšārullāh auxiliary within each country was given the title of National Ṣādīr Anšārullāh.

Challenges

As I mentioned earlier, I was appointed to be the first national head of Majlis Anšārullāh, USA, and with this came many challenges. Not only did I have to familiarize missionaries and members with the idea of a nationally based Majlis Anšārullāh, but I also needed to identify and explain its need, formation, and how it should essentially function.

It was with the sheer mercy of Allāh and the prayers of Ḥaḍrat Šāḥibzādah Mirzā Ṭāhir Ahmad, that I was able to begin this work. In addition to writing letters and making phone calls, I traveled to many Jamā’ats across the United States in order to start local Anšārullāh Majālis. In June of 1982, Ḥaḍrat Šāḥibzādah Mirzā Ṭāhir Ahmad requested Nā’īb Ṣādīr of Central Majlis Anšārullāh, respected Chaudhry Hameedullah, to visit the United States and determine the progress of Majlis Anšārullāh, USA. His main mission was to further promote the goals and purposes of a nationally based auxiliary for Anṣār, and to strengthen its activities. After visiting the headquarters of the USA Jamā’at in Washington, D.C., he visited many other local Jamā’ats and played a hand in forming or reorganizing 18 Majālis in the United States. At the time, there were 24 local Jamā’ats established in the country, and by the summer of 1982, 20 of them had an active Majlis Anšārullāh.

An additional challenge I faced was to introduce the concept of a Chanda specifically paid by members of Majlis Anšārullāh. The requested contribution was determined to be only 1% of one’s salary, and therefore maximum participation and sacrifice from Anṣār was critical in order to efficiently run and organize the activities of Majlis Anšārullāh. Our first Qa’id Finance was Lt. Col. Saied Ahmad Malik and Ahmad Hafeem followed him; both were from Washington, D.C. Majlis.

Challenges also arose with trying to spread and publish literature. Ḥaḍrat Šāḥibzādah Mirzā Ṭāhir Ahmad had advised Majlis Anšārullāh, USA to introduce Ḥaḍrat Sheik Muhammad Ahmad Mazhar’s book “English Traced to Arabic” in the United States. One hundred copies of the book were shipped to the U.S., and it became the responsibility of Anṣār members to sell them. By the grace of Allāh, we managed to sell them all in a timely manner. Additionally, the Central Majlis Anšārullāh advised Majlis Anšārullāh, USA to introduce a Rabwah-based Urdu magazine, “Monthly Anšārullāh” to the members of Anṣār in the United States. We had to establish a system that allowed us to get the magazine in bulk from Pakistan, and then manage to get copies sent individually by mail to different members across the U.S.
With the formation of Majlis Anşarullâh came the responsibility to organize a national Ijtimâ‘. The first national Ijtimâ‘ of Majlis Anşarullâh, USA was held at the Fazl Mosque of Washington, D.C. on the weekend of May 8, 1982. By the grace of Allâh, a total of 55 members from regions across the Northeast, Southeast, and Great Lakes participated in this Ijtimâ‘. The 1983 Ijtimâ‘ was also held in D.C., and the following two were held in York at Al-Noor Mosque and Dayton Fazle-Umar Mosque respectively. After seeking approval from the Central Şadr Anşarullâh, we also began sending a U.S. delegate to participate in the Central Anşarullâh Ijtimâ‘ in Rabwah, Pakistan. We would elect our delegate yearly at the U.S. Jalsa Sâlihâna, and the name of the elected delegate was then sent to the Center for approval. Our first national delegate, respected Fazal Ahmad of Boston Majlis, attended the 1982 Central Anşarullâh Ijtimâ‘, and the following year that privilege was given to respected Abid Haneef of Boston Majlis. In 1984, the infamous Anti Aḥmadiyya Martial Law Ordinance XX was passed and the government of Pakistan forbade the holding of any more Aḥmadi gatherings of this scale.

Another instruction given by the Central Majlis Anşarullâh was to encourage our members to study the books of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) and subsequently take tests to evaluate what we had learned and retained from them. Implementation of this as well as the memorization of Ṣalât, its translation, and the split-word translation of the Holy Qur‘ân, was largely successful by the grace of Allâh.

Inspirational Interaction with Khalîfâtul Masîḥ IV

I was fortunate to have worked with Ḥadrat Ṣâḥibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad before he became Khalîfâtul Masîḥ. During the time that Ḥadrat Ṣâhibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad served as Şadr of the Central Majlis Khuddâmul-Aḥmadiyya in Rabwah Pakistan, I served Majlis Khuddâmul-Aḥmadiyya as Regional Qâ‘id of Peshawar (now Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Province). I held this position from November 1966 to August 1969, before I came to the USA to pursue a Ph.D. at the University of Nebraska. Ḥadrat Ṣâhibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad was gracious enough to visit and stay with us in Lincoln, NE when he visited the USA for the first time with his family. This was after his participation in “Deliverance of Jesus from the Cross” in UK.

When Ḥadrat Ṣâhibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad and his family visited us in Lincoln, I was teaching and doing research work after completing my Ph.D. at the University of Nebraska. Since then, Ḥuďûr has called and wrote to me as a professor, even though my career was based on working for the U.S. government. I assisted him in preparation of his book titled “Revelation, Rationality, Knowledge and Truth,” and he acknowledged me as a professor on page 9 of his acknowledgements.

I moved to the Washington, D.C. area in February of 1981. Ḥadrat Ṣâhibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad was serving as Şadr of the Central Majlis Anşarullâh; he asked me to start Majlis Anşarullâh in USA and to work as Za‘îm A‘lâ, Majlis Anşarullâh, USA. Ḥadrat Ṣâhibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad had always been kind and gracious to me, and he has appreciated my meager efforts manifold. In May 1983, at the time of our second Ijtimâ‘ of Majlis Anşarullâh, USA, I had requested Ḥadrat Ṣâhibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad, Khalîfâtul Masîḥ IV, to send us a special message for the event. In spite of his countless occupations, Ḥadrat Khalîfâtul Masîḥ IV (may Allâh’s blessing be on him) found time to send us his well wishes and prayers.

Progress of Majlis Anşarullâh, USA since I was the Şadr Majlis

There is no comparison between the nascent state of Anşarullâh back in the 1980s and the well-established organization it has now become. There were only 55 members present in the first Ijtimâ‘ in 1982, and with the Grace of Allâh Almighty the attendance reached 1,036 members in 2014. In those early days, we only had one small hall and a few rooms in Fazl Mosque in Washington, D.C. to accommodate the guests. Last year we had to erect a huge marquee in the open grounds of the magnificent Baitur Raḥmân Mosque to accommodate the guests.

For publications, we used to have just a few members receiving the “Monthly Anşarullâh” paper published in Rabwah. Now all of our Anşar members are receiving Al-Naḥl and many other publications via the Internet and regular mail. At the beginning, we had to adopt various strategies to supplement our income for meeting our financial obligations. This included selling audio recordings of Question & Answer sessions of Ḥadrat Ṣâhibzâdah Mirzâ Ṣâhir Ahmad with non-Aḥmadi guests. We also relied on selling photographs of Khalîfâtul Masîḥ.

When I handed over the charge to the incoming Za‘îm A‘lâ, Fazal Ahmad, we had $1,800 in our account. Of course, now by the grace of Allâh our budget has reached into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

By the grace of Allāh, I was able to serve Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA from January 1986 to December 1992. It would be difficult for me to recall all the details of my service because my memory is not as strong as it once was. It would be fair to say that my ability to do the job was not up to par since communication with planners and schedulers would have been better if I was conversant in Urdu and had closer contact with all involved. I know better than to take credit for any progress that was made at that time. It was all done by the very able brothers that were around me such as Dr. Masoud Malik, Maulānā Mubāsher Ahmad, and Dr. Karimullah Zirvi.

Challenges

As I mentioned above my ability to perform the duty as Za‘īm A’lā, Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA was not up to par, so based on recommendation of the late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Muṣāﬀar Ahmad, Amīr Jāmā’at, USA, in 1989, Mirza Khurshid Ahmad, Ṣadr of the Central Majlis Anṣārullāh appointed Dr. Karimullah Zirvi as Nāḥib Nāẓīm A’lā of Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA who helped me greatly with running of the day to day business of the Majlis.

In 1990, I felt the need for a publication specifically for Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA, and after discussion we came up with the idea of creating a magazine which we named “Al-Nahl.” Once again De. Karimullah Zirvi and Majeed Mian of Boston Majlis helped greatly with starting Al-Nahl.

Inspirational Interaction with Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV

By the grace of Allāh, in 1982, Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA chose this humble one to represent Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA at the Central Anṣārullāh Ijtīmā’ in Rabwah, Pakistan. This was a very beautiful and important time of my life. I had many opportunities to spend time with Khalīfatul Masīḥ. Spending time in the company of Khalīfatul Masīḥ was the highlight of my wonderful trip.

Another wonderful moment in my life was when Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ III (may Allāh’s blessing be on him) came to United States for the first time. I was still a Khādim and we were lined up at the airport. It was such an exciting moment when we met the true Khalīfah of Islām.

Progress of Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA since I was the Ṣadr Majlis

Allāmdulillāh, tremendous progress has been made since the time of my tenure and when more learned and able people took over the office after me, the Majlis progressed by leaps and bounds. What I really love about these respected brothers who took over that they never criticized me and this shows the true nature of Islam and the spirit of brotherhood.

I was born a Catholic but after joining Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, by the grace of Allāh, it changed my life completely. My prayers were answered abundantly like never before and Allāh blessed me with true visions; not just me but my wife also saw a vision while awake. Ahmadiyyat, the true Islām, has been a blessing for me and it was through the sheer grace of Allāh that He led me to true Islām and also gave me opportunity to serve.
Fazal Abdullah Ahmad

In July of 1984, I found myself transplanted from the small town of Rabwah, Pakistan to Boston. Everything was different, but among the starkest differences was that the Jamā‘at members were not homogenous—we had African-American brothers and even a Caucasian brother. The five members that will always remain dear to me are: Abid Haneef, Yusuf Latif, Yahya Abdur Rahman, Abdus Sami Khaliq, and of course, Fazal Ahmad (we all called him “Brother Faazal”). These brothers showed dedication beyond imagination. Among other things, these brothers are largely responsible for the purchase of the land in Sharon, MA where our Mission House stands today.

For those that may not be aware, Brother Fazal was an accomplished Civil Engineer who lived near Boston almost his entire life. In addition to his regular work he had a small farm with chickens, lambs, and other animals. He once recounted how much care goes into taking care of the animals. He once related a very interesting story. When his mother-in-law was dying he frequently visited her and took care of her. Once she remarked that most sons-in-law are not like this. Why are you so different? Brother Fazal replied: “It’s because I’m a Muslim and I’ve accepted the Promised Messiah.” She replied that then Islam must be a true religion. It was examples like these that impressed us so much. Indeed for many of us he is a shining example of piety and humility, not to mention an honor for the Boston Jamā‘at to have a National President of an auxiliary.

After retirement, he moved to a small town in Vermont, which he always wanted to do. While that move may have been good for him, I was really disappointed, more heartbroken I think, when I realized that it would be difficult to meet him again. Since then I have seen him a few times when he travelled all the way back for special occasions and every time I see him it’s like meeting a close relative. May Allāh accept his services rendered to the Jamā‘at and may He continue to bless him and his family. Ḍimīn.

Assalamo Alaykum wa rahmatullah wa barakatuhu!

I have been informed that Majlis Ansarullah, USA, is holding its Annual Ijtema on 11th & 12th May, 1991 and would like to have a message from me for that occasion.

You are living in a country which is very advanced in material wealth and the eyes of the whole world are focussed on it with admiration. This situation has given rise to the belief in the minds of certain people that everything that emanates from this land of the rich must be good and pure.

But the Holy Qur’an teaches us that what matters with Allah is the purity of man’s heart and behaviour. Moreover, the Holy Prophet of Islam (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has said that Islam started as a religion of the oppressed and the underprivileged and that in the latter days, its renaissance will also take place among people of similar circumstances.

Thus, nations possessing affluence are NOT necessarily setting a pattern that should be emulated and desired, as this does not mean that those granted such affluence are close to God.

Thus according to the prophecies, outward poverty or abundance of worldly means should not be the goal of a believer. His sole aim should be to adopt such a course which should bring him near to his Creator.

I would like the members of Majlis Ansarullah to inculcate in them the spirit of righteousness and purity so that they are counted, in the sight of Allah, among those who are His true servants.

Allah be with you.

Wassalam,

KHALIFATUL MASIH IV

London 30 April, 1991

The message sent by Ḥadrat Khalifatul Masih IV (may Allah’s blessing be on him) at the occasion of the 10th National Ijtima’ of Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA held on May 11-12, 1991 at Bait-uz-Ẓafar Mosque in New York
11th National Ijtima’ of Majlis Anşarulläh, USA held on May 9-10, 1992 at Bait-uz-Żafar Mosque in New York
Originally, the Anşarullah Majlis (chapters) all over the world were under the supervision of Şadr Majlis Anşarullah with its head offices at the Center, first in Qādiān, India and then in Rabwah, Pakistan. The Head of Anşarullah in each country was called Nāzīm A’lā or Za’īm A’lā. Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ IV (may Allāh’s blessing be on him), announced in his Friday Sermon delivered on November 3, 1989, that in the future, Khalifatul Masīḥ would himself supervise all auxiliary organizations. He also mentioned that all over the world and at the national level, the heads of the auxiliary organizations would be designated as Şadr (President).

In May 1989, respected Fazal Ahmad of Boston Majlis was elected Za’īm A’lā of Majlis Anşarullah, USA. In June 1989 Mirza Khursīd Ahmad, Şadr of the Central Majlis Anşarullah, based on the recommendation of the late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Muzaffar Ahmad, Amir Jamā’at, USA, approved my appointment as Nā’īb Nāzīm A’lā of Majlis Anşarullah, USA. I helped the Majlis to increase Anşar activities in different ways. In 1991, respected Fazal Ahmad came up with the idea of publishing an Anşarullah magazine. He named the magazine as “Al-Naḥīl” and assigned me the responsibility of publishing the magazine. Majeed Mian of Boston Majlis and I published the first issue of the magazine in May, 1990. Furthermore, I was told by respected Fazal Ahmad to organize the Iṭīmā’ of Majlis Anşarullah, USA, Alḥamdulillahi, with some effort soon attendance in the Annual Iṭīmā’ doubled.

In November 1989, Majlis Anşarullah, USA came under direct supervision of Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ IV and title of the head of the Anşarullah organization was changed; respected Fazal Ahmad became Şadr Majlis Anşarullah, USA and I became Nā’īb Şadr.

In 1992, at the occasion of national Iṭīmā’, which was held at Baituz Zafar Mosque in New York, the late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Muzaffar Ahmad, Amir Jamā’at, USA, conducted elections for Şadr Majlis Anşarullah, USA. I was elected as Şadr Majlis. The following humble efforts were made to improve Anşarullah activities:

Through letter writing and telephone calls, efforts were made to increase attendance of Anşar at the national Iṭīmā’. By the grace of God, every year attendance increased and in the last Iṭīmā’ during my tenure, which was held at Baitur Raḥmān Mosque attendance was between 350 to 400 Anşar. The total number of Anşar in the U.S. at that time were around 850. Thus at the end of my tenure as Şadr Anşarullah the Majlis had achieved around 45% attendance at the Annual Iṭīmā’.

Since communication with Anşar was through phone and letters, therefore, a directory of Anşarullah with addresses and phone numbers was prepared and printed in book format.

West Coast Annual Iṭīmā’ was established and regional Iṭīmā’at were established where none were held previously. I personally attended the regional Iṭīmā’ at various places that increased attendance in Iṭīmā’at. Iṭīmā’ at local level were started. During the first year, attendance was poor but by the time my tenure ended local Iṭīmā’at were well established and had good attendance everywhere.

First Shūrā of Majlis Anşarullah, USA was held in 1993 at Baituz Zafar Mosque in New York. The attendance was 15-20 Anşar. Efforts were made to establish Shūrā on the pattern of the Jamā’at’s Shūrā. By the grace of God, by the end of my tenure, Shūrā of Majlis Anşarullah was well established and well organized. Shūrā delegates from almost all Majālis participated in Shūrā and Shūrā recommendations approved by Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ IV were fully implemented. For example, in one Shūrā, it was decided that Majlis Anşarullah, USA should contribute $10,000 towards construction of the guest houses in Qādiān and this amount was presented to the late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Waseem Ahmad, Nāzīr A’lā, Şadr Anjuman Ahmadiyya, India. Initially, Shūrā was held for two days separately from the Iṭīmā’. However, later on, it was decided that to save travel expenses Shūrā should be held with the national Iṭīmā’. Thus Shūrā was held on Friday and Iṭīmā’ was held on Saturday and Sunday. Initially, both events were held in May or June. However, later on, these were moved to September.

Before construction of Baitur Raḥmān Mosque, Iṭīmā’ and Shūrā events were held at Baitul Zafar Mosque in New York. However, for one time, these events were held in Philadelphia. Later on, all the events were held at Baitur Raḥmān Mosque. When Baitur Raḥmān Mosque was completed, it coincided with Shūrā of Majlis Anşarullah, USA, so I requested the late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Muzaffar Ahmad, Amir Jamā’at, USA, to grant permission to hold the Shūrā at the new venue. He wrote back that Shūrā cannot be held at the mosque because there were no chairs. I offered to buy 200 chairs for the mosque on behalf of the Majlis. He appreciated this offer and permitted us to hold the Shūrā at Baitur Raḥmān Mosque. Thus the first event which took place at Baitur Raḥmān Mosque was Shūrā of Majlis Anşarullah, USA that was held in 1994. The chairs which were donated became used. Chanda and at the end of my tenure did great job of collection of the Chanda. Sheikh Abdul Wahid was proper system for collection of the was extremely poor. There was no direction of then Za’ṣārullāh, respected Nasir Malik.

As stated earlier, under the direction of then Za’im A‘lā, respected Fazal Ahmad, I had published the first issue of Al-Naḥl. In my tenure, special efforts were made to publish a good quality magazine. The Center at London had asked the U.S. Jamā’at to publish a special issue of the Gazette about Professor Dr. Abdul Salam. The late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Muzzaffar Ahmad, Amir Jamā’at, USA, told me to publish a special issue of Al-Naḥl about Professor Dr. Abdul Salam. It was a tremendous task to collect all the information for the special issue. I made many calls to the family members of Professor Dr. Abdul Salam and also contacted the Director of the (Abdus Salam) International Center for Theoretical Physics, Trieste, Italy to collect information about Professor Dr. Abdul Salam’s tenure at the institute. By the grace of God, a comprehensive and beautiful special issue of Al-Naḥl about Professor Dr. Abdul Salam was published. A copy of the special issue of Al-Naḥl was sent to Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ IV (may Allāh’s blessing be on him). He liked the magazine and wrote that it was a very good issue as it included all the information in one resource. He further wrote that a copy of the magazine should be sent to all Mission Houses throughout the world. Accordingly, I obtained a list of addresses of all the Mission Houses from Wakilut Tabshir office, London, and personally sent a copy of the issue to all Mission Houses throughout the world. Besides the Professor Dr. Abdul Salam issue, the following other special issues of Al-Naḥl were also published:

- The Essay Triumphed: Philosophy of the Teachings of Islām
- Fulfillment of the Prophecy of Solar and Lunar Eclipses
- A special issue of Al-Naḥl about Ḥaḍrat Mufti Muhammad Ṣādiq (may Allāh be pleased with him)

I felt a need for a Ṣalāt (Prayer) Poster which could be used by Atfal, Khuddām, and Ṣādīr to learn various aspects of Ṣalāt and Ṣalāt translation. Thus, a colorful Ṣalāt Poster was published which was very useful and became very popular. Great effort went into publishing the poster. It was submitted to the late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Muzzaffar Ahmad, Amir Jamā’at, USA, for approval and guidance. He made some suggestions which were incorporated. Missionary Mubasher Ahmad also reviewed it and made some suggestions which were also incorporated. When a copy of the Ṣalāt Poster was sent to Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ IV, he liked it to the extent that he advised the Tarbiyat Secretary of the UK Jamā’at to get the poster from Majlis Ṣārullāh, USA for the UK Jamā’at. So a large number of Ṣalāt posters were purchased by the UK Jamā’at.

My first book “Words of Wisdom” was published under the auspices of Majlis Ṣārullāh, USA. The late Ḥaḍrat Mirza Muzzaffar Ahmad, Amir Jamā’at, USA, took personal interest in the publication of this book. He reviewed the manuscript and suggested adding some Aḥādīths. He provided the title for the book: “Words of Wisdom.” Moreover, He gave the magazine to Maulānā Ataullāh Majeed Rashid, Missionary in Charge, UK, to review. His suggestions were also incorporated in the book.

A Shūrā proposal was approved that two parts of the booklet written by Maulānā Ataullah Kalim for National Tarbiyat Department should be reviewed, revised, and published as one book. Accordingly, with the help of Maulānā Ataullah Kalim, the book “Synopsis of Religious Preaching” was revised and published by Majlis Ṣārullāh, USA.

A book written for Ahmadi children by the late Dr. Yusef A. Latif, “Razzāq and Farīḍah,” was published by Majlis Ṣārullāh, USA in 1997.

It was felt that at the Ḥjīmā’, Ṣārullāh flag should be raised. However, I found out that the Ṣārullāh flag is not available in the USA. So through my younger brother in Rabwah the flag was obtained and placed along with USA flag at the Ḥjīmā’.

It was decided that the best local Majlis of Majlis Ṣārullāh, USA should be recognized at the national Ḥjīmā’ by giving the ‘Alam-i-In’amī. For this purpose, another flag and a flag pole were purchased. Thus giving of the ‘Alam-i-In’amī to the best Majlis was initiated. In an Ḥjīmā’ meeting the criterion for selection of the best Majlis was finalized and provided to all Zu’amā.

With the help of Majeed Mian and the late Salim Nazir, Ta’lim Test initiative was started which is still continuing.

The monthly Ṣārullāh Newsletter was started in January, 1995.

I strongly felt that there should be Ṣārullāh Hall at Baitur Raḥmān Mosque. Approval for the Ṣārullāh Hall was obtained from Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ IV.

An insignia for Majlis Ṣārullāh, USA was approved by Majlis ‘Amila after lengthy discussions in ‘Amila meetings. T-shirts with the insignia were sold to Ṣārār.

Ball-points on which “Majlis Ṣārullāh, USA” was printed were sold at various Ḥjīmā’at.

Challenges

When I took charge in 1993, there were $480 in a bank account in Boston. However, later, I found out that there was an account of the Majlis in Washington, D.C. from the days when Dr. Masoud Ahmad Malik was Za’im A‘lā. This account had $1,800. Both accounts were closed and a new account was opened in New Jersey.

In a few chapters, Majlis Ṣārullāh was actively functioning, but in some chapters Majlis Ṣārullāh did not exist at all. All Jamā’at Presidents were contacted and where there was no Majlis Ṣārullāh, elections were conducted and Majālis were established. Thus within the first year, in all 29 Jamā’at’s in the U.S., Majālis of Ṣārullāh were established.
In those days, the only way to contact with members of Ansārullāh was through phone or letters. Furthermore, there was no central place in Washington, D.C. to hold National events. The Majlis did not have enough funds to help the ‘Āmila members with travel expenses. Therefore, National ‘Āmila was formed mostly from members living in New Jersey/New York area. ‘Āmila meetings were held quarterly at Baitul Waḥīd Mosque in Clifton, New Jersey. In order to maximize the limited resources for other important activities of Ansārullāh, such as national Ġitīmā and Shūrā, food for the ‘Āmila meetings was prepared by my wife. May God Almighty reward her for that, Amin.

Inspirational Interaction with Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV

Haḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV (may Allāh’s blessing be on him) appreciated every little thing we did to improve Ansārullāh activities. However, sometimes, Ḥudūr lovingly reminded us of our mistakes which were made due to inexperience.

Copies of Al-Naḥī were sent to Haḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV. In one of his letters, Ḥudūr wrote, “I am in receipt of a copy of Al-Naḥī from you. Jazākumullāh Aḥsanal Jazā. MāshāAllāh, it is a very good magazine. May Almighty God increase its circulation and make it blessing for people. Convey my Salām filled with love to all the workers and Ansār.”

At the occasion of the National Ġitīmā of Majlis Ansārullāh, USA that was held in Philadelphia, Haḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV, in his Friday sermon of May 13, 1994, gave a special message for the Majlis Ansārullāh, USA. The video of the Friday sermon was shown to the participants of the Ġitīmā.

Ḥudūr had accepted the recommendation of Majlis Shūrā of Majlis Ansārullāh USA to give $10,000 to Amīr Jamā’at Qādiān, India towards the Guesthouse Building project. I thought that it was my obligation to implement the Shurā recommendation approved by Ḥudūr and during my visit to Qādiān I presented a check of $10,000 to Ḥudrat Mirza Waeem Amīr Jamā’at Qādiān. When I returned from Qādiān, I informed Ḥudūr about the payment. When Haḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV learned about the payment, he admonished me for not sending the money through the Center in London.

As mentioned earlier, the first event that was held at Baitur Raḥmān Mosque was Shūrā Ansārullāh and since there were no chairs available at the mosque to hold the Shūrā I purchased the chairs for Baitur Raḥmān mosque using Ansārullāh funds. Again, Ḥudrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV inquired, “Why was the money spent to purchase chairs while the amount used to purchase the chairs was not mentioned in the budget that was discussed in the Shūrā and approved by Ḥudūr? Permission should have been requested from the Center for this expense.”

Chanda Publication for Ansār was $5 per year. The amount collected was not enough to support Ansārullāh publications. Accordingly, a request was made to increase Chanda Publication from $5 to $10. Ḥudrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV wrote, “I am not in favor of increasing the Chanda Publication. However, due to extraordinary circumstances with great hesitation increase in Chanda Publication from $5 to $10 is allowed.”

A proposal was sent to Haḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV for permission to build Ansārullāh Hall in Maryland and to collect Chanda for that. Ḥudūr did not approve the proposal and wrote, “There is no need for Ansārullāh Hall.” After discussion in the ‘Āmila meeting, I made another appeal to Ḥudūr for permission to build the Ansārullāh Hall. This time, Ḥudūr told me to ask the late Ḥudrat Mirza Muḥaffar Ahmad, Amīr Jamā’at, USA, to send his recommendation regarding the Ansārullāh Hall. I contacted late Ḥudrat Mirza Muḥaffar Ahmad and he accepted my point of view and recommended to Ḥudūr for permission to build Ansārullāh Hall. This time, Ḥudūr graciously accepted the proposal and Chanda collection for Ansārullāh Hall was started.

At the time I served as Šadr Majlis Ansārullāh, according to the Constitution, Šadr Majlis could only be elected for three consecutive terms of three years each. I was elected for the third term in 1998 which started in January 1999. During the first year of this term it was decided by Ḥudrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IV that from now on Šadr Majlis Ansārullāh could be elected for three two-year terms only. The circular further stated that elections for Šadr Majlis Ansārullāh should be held immediately. Anyone who has served as Šadr Majlis Ansārullāh for six years shall not be eligible for being a candidate during the special election, so I was not eligible. Thus my term as Šadr Ansārullāh expired at the end of 1999.

While making the closing remarks at the occasion of the national Ġitīmā of Majlis Ansārullāh, USA, which was held in September 1999 at Baitur Raḥmān Mosque, the late Haḍrat Mirza Muḥaffar Ahmad, Amīr Jamā’at, USA, said: “…Lastly, I would say that the outgoing Šadr Majlis Ansārullāh, Mr. Zirvi, had done exceptionally good work. He has changed Majlis Ansārullāh from a sleepy and dormant organization into a live one. This good work needs to be expanded and our best wishes and prayers are with the new team.” (Al-Naḥī, p. 10, Spring/Summer/Fall 1999)

MāshāAllāh Majlis Ansārullāh, USA has made significant progress in recent years. Alḥamdu’llillāh.

In my humble tenure, my focus was to inculcate open communication, transparency, team spirit, standardization, consistency, professionalism, top-down accountability, and developing a “learning and evolving” mindset. I was blessed with a knowledgeable, motivated, committed, passionate, and diverse National ‘Āmila. We set out with a motto—“Together, we will make the difference. Inshā’Allah.”

We started by establishing SMART (Specific, Measureable, Action Oriented, Realistic, Time Bound) annual goals and priorities for each department and tracked our progress regularly.

We combined the annual Shūrā with National Ijtimā‘ and started our journey towards a ‘paperless’ Shūrā deliberations to improve efficiency, reduce cost, and increase participation. We also rotated National ‘Āmila meetings among various Majālis to enhance direct interaction of National ‘Āmila with local Anṣār members and facilitate brotherhood. To improve direct communication with Anṣār members, we introduced monthly “Anṣār” newsletter and published the quarterly magazine “Al-Nahl.”

We initiated the annual Anṣār Leadership Conference (ALC) for National ‘Āmila, Regional Qā‘idin, and Zu‘amā. In the ALCs, we communicated our annual calendar, goals, and priorities, and solicited support from all concerned. These ALCs were rotated among various Majālis. Through these ALCs, we connected with many Anṣār throughout the country. In these ALCs, we asked each participant to introduce himself (family, job, hobbies, role in Jamā‘at/Majlis, etc.) This exercise brought us together at a personal level.

We developed templates for all our activities—local as well as national—agendas, meetings, syllabi, reports, etc. We introduced visual projections and interactive programs to improve our communication, discussions, reports, and presentations. We standardized our local, regional, and national Ijtimā‘. In our Ijtimā‘, we introduced new competitions (Observation & Recall, Message Relay, English Poem, and Musical Chairs) and new formats for General Knowledge, and Impromptu Speech competitions. We also introduced Ḍiyāfāt competition at each meal time during the Ijtimā‘.

We developed criteria for grouping various Majālis into large, medium, and small, and to evaluate their competitive performance. We introduced several new categories to recognize exceptional contributions by various Anṣār, Majālis, and regions. We also introduced the “Lifetime Achievement Award” for our lifelong, consistent, and exceptional Anṣār contributors.

We introduced Anṣār Tāhir Scholarship for qualified Anṣār to promote continuous learning and acquisition of new skills for job/career transitions.

The above humble efforts increased the Majālis count from 37 to 55, Majālis with Chanda collection from 76% (28 of 37) to 100% (55 of 55), annual budget from $160K to $220K, national Ijtimā‘ attendance from under 200 to above 500.

Şadr Majlis Anşärullâh, USA (2006 - 2013)

Following is a gist of accomplishments that Majlis Anşärullâh, USA was able to achieve during 2006-2013, by the grace of Allâh.

Anşar membership increased from 1,800 to 2,600. Of these, 480 are Mûsiyân (plural of Mûşi, one who participates in the system of Wasiyyat). Ḥâdrat Khalifatul Masîh V (may Allâh be his helper) made a historic appeal for new Mûsiyân in 2004. In response to that appeal, 350 members applied for the Wasiyyat from August 2004 to December 2013, Alḥamdu'llâh.

The number of Majâlis in Majlis Anşärullâh, USA increased from 60 to 71. In 2006 the entire U.S. was divided into ten regions with approximately 180 members per region. By 2013, number of regions had increased to 12 with approximately 216 members per region.

Majlis Anşärullâh, USA registered the web domain “ansarusa.org” in February 2002 to develop a website to provide resources and information to members and officeholders of the Majlis. Other auxiliaries in the U.S. followed Majlis Anşärullâh's lead in this area. Majlis Khuddâmul-Aḥmadiyya (mkausa.org) registered its domain in May 2002 and Lajna Ima‘illâh registered its domain (lajnasa.net) in January 2008. Website of Majlis Anşärullâh, USA at www.ansarusa.org was divided into two sections: one section was open to the public and the other section was password-protected for administrative purposes. This domain was also used to provide official email addresses for all officeholders of the Majlis.

Ijtima‘at and Majâlis Shûrâ

The national annual Ijtima‘ of Majlis Anşärullâh, USA has been held every year since 1982. There were 12 attendees at the first National Ijtima‘. Attendance at the 2013 national Ijtima‘ was more than 750. Besides the national annual Ijtima‘, several local and regional Ijtima‘at (plural of Ijtima‘) have also been held regularly.

Departmental Programs

Comprehensive programs were prepared every year for each department and these programs were provided to Zu'amâ at the beginning of the year at the Anşar Leadership Conference (ALC). The ALC has been held every year since 2000.

Administrative

Number of reports submitted by Zu'amâ in 2006 was 62%. Number of reports submitted increased to 100% in 2012. This increase was partly due to the implementation of fully electronic reporting system in 2010.

Majlis Anşărullâh, USA provided support (personnel) to Şadr Majlis Khuddâmul-Aḥmadiyya during the visit of Ḥâdrat Khalifatul Masîh V (may Allâh be his helper) in 2012.

Anşar Leadership Conference (ALC) was held every year during 2006 - 2013 period.

Mid-Year evaluations of performance of Majâlis for ‘Alam-i-Inâmi was provided to Zu'amâ and Nâzîmin.

Publications

In 1992, Fazal Ahmad, then Za‘im Alâ Majlis Anşärullâh, USA, formally started a magazine for Majlis Anşärullâh, USA and named it “Al-Nâhl” based on chapter Al-Nâhl in the Holy Qur‘ân (one issue of Al-Nâhl was published before 1992). By the Grace of Almighty Allâh, Al-Nâhl was regularly published during 2006 to 2013 and mailed to every member free of charge. Special issues during this period were:

- Khilafat Issue
- Waṣiyyat issue

Format of Al-Nâhl was changed in 2012 from small booklet style to full-page style.

The other publication activities were as follows:

A monthly newsletter called ‘Anşarullâh News’ was started in January 1995. By the grace of Allâh, the newsletter was regularly published during 2006 to 2013. It is being sent to all members free of charge, both in electronic and paper format.

A small booklet “Muhammad in the Bible” (may peace and blessings of Allâh be on him) was republished in 2013.

A Prayer poster with photographs depicting all postures of the prescribed prayers, with Arabic text, transliteration and English translation was published in 1995; It was published again in 2008 due to demand.

“Pocket Du‘â” was published in 2013.

“Approaching the West,” by Mubasher Ahmad, M.A., LLB was published in 2008 and then again in 2011.

“Why Islâm is my choice,” personal accounts of spiritual journeys of individuals who have converted to Islâm was published in October 2007. Published several flyers in English, Spanish, and Arabic.

“Wonderful prayers from the Holy Qur‘ân,” a pocket size booklet was re-published in 2013.
Pocket size “Ten Conditions of Bai‘at” was printed twice for free distribution.

Prayers for Khilāfah Centenary were printed in 2008 and distributed free of charge.

“Forty Gems of Beauty” was reprinted in December 2007 after adjusting spellings for the U.S. audience.

“Homeopathic Remedies,” a translation of an Urdu booklet was published in 2012.

Property

In 2007, Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masih V (may Allah be his helper) approved building of Anṣārullāh Hall as part of Baitur Raḥmān Mosque expansion. Building of the Anṣār hall was recommended by the Majlis Shūrā of 1996. This proposal was approved by Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masih IV (may Allah’s blessing be on him) in 1998. Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA contributed $500,000 towards Baitur Raḥmān Mosque expansion. Anṣārullāh hall was inaugurated on October 16, 2009.

Tabligh

Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA made special efforts to visit small towns from 2009 to 2013. This effort was initiated in response to a directive given by Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masih V (may Allah be his helper) that Tabligh efforts should focus on small towns and villages. From 2009 to 2013 members visited more than 900 small towns across the U.S.

Anṣār actively participated in the following campaigns initiated by the Jamā‘at or other auxiliaries:

- Muslims for Loyalty
- Muslims for Life
- Walk for Humanity

Education

Educational programs paid special attention to proper recitation of the Holy Qur‘ān as well as reading and studying the books of the Promised Messiah (peace be upon him). Two tests based on the education syllabus were conducted every year. In 1997, only 31 (2%) members participated in the first test for that year, while more than 810 members participated in 2012 (33%).

Hard copies of Ta‘lim (education) material was provided to every Nāṣir in the U.S. These books contained material needed for two Ta‘lim tests every year. Electronic version of this material was also made available on the Anṣār website.

Tarbiyat (Moral Training)

The moral training program focused on creating and maintaining Ṣalāt centers, activating inactive Anṣār, and addressing social and cultural issues in Majlis. The Majlis emphasized the importance of:

- Congregational Ṣalāt
- Regular recitation of the Holy Qur‘ān
- Becoming role models for family members and children
- Establishing strong affiliation with Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masih and the Jamā‘at
- Joining the system of Waṣiyyat

Health

Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA provided homeopathic kits as well as replenished existing kits from 2006 to 2011.

Health Talk—an interactive program providing useful health information pertaining to Anṣār—was made a part of the national Ijtimā’.

Social Services

The Anṣār Ṭāhir Scholarship Program was initiated in 2005 to help Anṣār further their education or acquire new skills to enhance employability. More than 25 scholarships totaling $75,000 were awarded from 2006 to 2013.

The Majlis provided MTA dish and receiver system or MTABox to those Anṣār who cannot afford to purchase one.

The Majlis provided support to various projects that provide food/clothes to the needy in various areas.

Financial Sacrifices

Income Budget and Collection for financial sacrifices of Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA continued to be strong both for the Majlis and in support of the Jamā‘at system.

Anṣār financial contributions increased from $314,500 in 2006 to $527,000 in 2013. An increase of more than 40%.

Contributions by Anṣār members for two major Jamā‘at initiatives during 2006-2013 timeframe were:

- Ṭāhir Heart Institute
  - $2,010,466.30
- UK Jalsa Gāh
  - $115,000.00

Other notable efforts by Majlis Anṣārullāh included:

- In 2009 the Majlis contributed $76,000 to install hundreds of water wells in Africa.
- “Bicycles for Africa” scheme was initiated in 2010. Under this initiative, 350 bicycles and 20 tricycles were donated to Burkina Faso on April 14, 2011 with total contribution of $38,000.
- Provided funds ($80,000) to establish model villages in Sierra Leon (Project: provided electricity using solar technology to 6 villages).
- Committed to provide funds ($400,000) for the purchase of Mosque/Mission House in Haiti.

Şadr Majlis Anşärullâh, USA (2014 - Present)

At the beginning of 2014, Majlis Anşärullâh, USA pledged to strengthen our belief in the unseen. Our Khalifah had given us the marching orders but the outcomes were unseen. So we put our heads down and got to work, with humility and prayers. Based on the directives of Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masîh V (may Allâh be his helper), we selected four priority focus areas. Allâh Almighty blessed Majlis Anşärullâh, USA with much success, not only in those four areas, but in all areas.

Top Priority: Officeholders reporting their compliance with listening to Ḥuḍûr’s Friday sermons

During the year 2014, we started tracking the compliance of Majlis Anşärullâh, USA’s officeholders with listening to Ḥuḍûr’s Friday sermons. Though easy on the surface, getting this data in real life was a daunting task. Qa’id Tarbiyat, Yasin Sharif, and Nâ’îb Qa’id, Tahir Soofi, worked tirelessly to gather this data under the guidance of Nâ’îb Şadr Şaff Dom, Imran Hayee. At the end of second quarter, only 29% of the Anşar officeholders submitted their compliance data. By the end of third quarter, however, that number shot up to 72% of the officeholders.

First Priority: Establishing brotherhood by following the Qur’anic injunction: “Save yourself and your families from a fire” (66:7)

Ḥuḍûr gave us the task of focusing on self-reformation, for both ourselves and our families. With this inward focus, the Majlis designed, created, printed, and distributed over 2,000 copies of the Anşar Ta’lim-and-Tarbiyat Handbook containing real life scenarios to be discussed in local meetings. Guidance from the Holy Qur’ân, Aḥâdîth, quotes of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) and Khulaﬁ’ were included to steer the discussion in the right direction.

And this is where the story got interesting.

We wanted to make sure that Ḥuḍûr’s message is heard by as many Anşar as possible. And frankly, what good is a handbook if members do not show up for the meetings? Keeping this in mind, we tracked the attendance of monthly meetings. Thanks to the efforts of Qa’id ‘Umûmî, Maqbool Tahir, and his team.

The engagement was further confirmed by the number of Anşar who completed their Ta’lim tests during 2014. Qa’id Ta’lim, Monas Chaudry, went above and beyond to get us to 50% test submission in the latter part of 2014.

Interactive discussions were held at the regional and National Ijtimâ’at. According to estimates, these presentations were attended by over 1,000 members.

Now how do you measure spirituality? While we cannot peek inside someone’s heart, there are behaviors which the Holy Qur’ân links with the righteous. We present some of those behaviors here.

By the grace of Allâh, this year, over 130 more Anşar joined the blessed system of Waqîyyat.

Financial sacrifice is another marker of spiritual progress. By the grace of Allâh, our Anşar Chanda participants increased from 1,800 to 2,100+ and the Majlis received $60,000 more in financial contributions as compared to 2013. Qa’id Finance, Munawar Saqib, and his team’s efforts were commendable.

In Ta’hirîk Jadîd, 2,141 members participated. Qa’id Ta’hirîk Jadîd, Hassiem Abdullah Babatu, sent multiple reminders and made numerous phone calls to break this record. By the grace of Allâh, over 150 new members participated in the blessed scheme of Waqî Jadîd to help the Majlis cross the 2,000 mark.

Second Priority: Be the real helpers of Allâh and His creation

Mottos have to be backed up with actions. In order to be true to our motto of “Helpers of Allâh” the Majlis embarked on a variety of initiatives designed to strengthen our spirituality and our commitment to serving humanity—both within and outside the Jamâ’at.

Helping to instill the love of Qur’ân

Despite his health challenges, Qa’id Ta’limul-Qur’ân, Syed Fazal Ahmad, set high standards of service and humility by engaging 40 Anşar who taught Qur’ân classes at various Jamâ’at platforms. Over 400 Anşar participated. Over a dozen new converts were helped with learning to recite the Holy Qur’ân. Over 270 Anşar memorized the assigned verses of Sûrah Al-Ṣaff in 2014.

Helping New converts

Besides providing brotherhood on the local level, the Majlis also helped our new converts travel to spiritually uplifting Jamâ’at gatherings. Three converts were assisted to attend the UK Jalsa and meet Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masîh V, four converts attended the National Ijtimâ’ of Majlis Anşärullâh, USA, and five attended the 2014 Jalsa Sâlânâ of the USA Jamâ’at. Qa’id Nau Mubâ’în (New Converts), Wasim Ahmad, was instrumental in achieving these goals.
Free Health Services

The Majlis launched a health hotline—716-800-1889—where any member of the USA Jam‘at could call and get their basic health needs met by an Ahmadi doctor. The hotline number is easy to remember: 1+6 =7 (That’s how you remember 716), 800 is the easiest number to remember in the U.S., and the Jam‘at was established in 1889. The service was provided by Qā‘id Health, Dr. Lutfur Rehman. Over 50 members called this hotline during the first year to benefit from this service.

Free Living Will

The Majlis took this service from words to action. At the National Ijtima’, one of our accountants, Khalid Chaudhry, tag-teamed to help members complete their living wills. What costs $400-$800 in the real world, was provided for free to 55 members.

Anşār Ẓahir Scholarship

We encourage Anşār members to retool themselves—as needed—so they remain competitive in an ever changing job market. Anşār Ẓahir scholarship pays up to $4,000 towards such vocational training courses for Anşār members. Thanks to the efforts of many ‘Āmila members, during 2014, the total number of recipients of Anşār Ẓahir scholarship doubled.

Anşārullāh Trailer at Baitur-Rahmān Mosque

Nāẓīm Headquarters region, Khurram Bashir, helped to renovate the Majlis’ trailer at Baitur-Rahmān Mosque. The trailer is home to local Majālis and is also available to all members of Majlis Anşārullāh, USA nationwide.

Anşārullāh booth at Jalsa Sālāna

Right outside one of the entrances of main Jalsa Gāh was located a large booth of Majlis Anşārullāh, USA. It was primarily manned by Maqbool Tahir and Munawar Saqib.

Third Priority: Strengthening our Communications

Anşār Leadership Conference (ALC)

The 10th annual ALC was held in Dallas, TX on January 18-19, 2014. Nearly 100 Anşār officeholders gathered to align their understanding of the National plan at the beginning of the year.

Personal visits

During the year 2014, members of National ‘Āmila visited over 30 Majālis nationwide, including 11 Majālis visited by Ẓād Majlis himself.

Meetings

Three in-person meetings of National Majlis ‘Āmila and Nāẓīm were held (Dallas, Virginia, and Detroit). Majlis Shūrā was held in Silver Spring, MD on October 10-11, 2014.

Phone calls

National ‘Āmila members and Nā‘īb Ẓādān (plural of Ẓād) made periodic phone calls to Zu‘āma. To encourage an open dialogue, every Zu‘ām enjoyed a monthly opportunity to jump on a 30-minute conference call with Ẓād Majlis.

Conference calls

The Majlis held a monthly conference call of National ‘Āmila and a separate conference call with regional Nāẓīm. The calls are typically attended by over 80% of the concerned officeholders.

Revamping the Website

AnsarUSA.org is our home in the cyberspace. At times, the website becomes a major source of information dissemination; therefore, the IT team spent over 350 man hours to completely upgrade the aesthetics and functionality of the website. During 2014, there were times when our website was the only one-stop-shop for critical information. For example, when Dr. Mehdi Ali Qamar was martyred in Pakistan, our team developed a dedicated webpage for him where all the news stories and other relevant information was archived. The webpage has received over 20,000 hits. Our National Ijtima’ page received over 10,000 hits. Departmental pages of Ta’lim, Finance, Publications, and Services each received over 2,000 hits individually.

Mu‘āwīn Ẓād IT, Pervaiz Khan, played a critical role in launching the revamped website and managing it with the help of team members.

Al-Naḥl (our flagship quarterly Anşār magazine)

This, including the next two bullets, is the detailed work of Qā‘id Ishā‘at, Rafi Malik. Al-Naḥl was published and mailed to over 2,000 households free of charge.

Anşār Connection (bi-weekly e-newsletter)

A new bi-weekly e-newsletter was launched to share first-person stories of righteousness. You can find the archives of these newsletters on our website. About 1,000 Anşār open these newsletters every month.

Anşār (monthly print newsletter)

Our monthly newsletter, Anşār, was published every month and mailed to all Anşār free of charge.

Fourth Priority—National Ijtima’

If we truly have brotherhood, then we should be galvanized to spend a weekend together and enjoy the company of our elders. With this premise, the Majlis set an ambitious goal to bring over 1,000 Anşār to this year’s National Ijtima’ in Silver Spring, MD. We mailed postcard invites to every member’s household, blocked hotel rooms, and added interactive workshops to the Ijtima’. By the grace of Allāh, 1,106 people attended the Ijtima’ and 23% of them (according to the survey) attended it for the first time.
Regional Ḥjtima‘āt

Alḥamdulillāh, 12 regional Ḥjtima‘āt were held nationwide.

Miscellaneous Achievements

Ṭablīgh

Over 5 members went to Merida, Mexico to support the high energy Ṭablīgh efforts. It is estimated that over 500 guests were engaged in Ṭablīgh activities across the U.S. during various programs in 2014. Multiple Majālis spread the message of Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) through more than 50 radio programs. New York, Los Angeles, Dallas, and Dayton Majālis were particularly active in Ṭablīgh activities. Majlis Ansārullāh actively supported and participated in the Muslims for Life and Muslims for Loyalty campaigns by the USA Jamā‘at.

Book Publishing

A book titled “The Disciple,” authored by Rashid Arshed of LA Inland Majlis, was published.

In 2015, 1,000 copies of the Constitution of Majlis Ansārullāh were reprinted in Qadian to be provided to U.S. Ansār officers. All the outstanding updates, approved by the Center were incorporated in this edition.

Anšūr Pledge

Ash-hadu • allā ilāha • illallāhu • wahdahū • lā sharīka lahū • wa ash-hadu • anna muḥammadan • ‘abduhū • wa rasūlullāh

(I bear witness that • there is none worthy of worship • except Allāh. • He is One • (and) has no partner, • and I bear witness • that Muhammad (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) • is His servant and messenger.)

I solemnly pledge that • I shall endeavor • throughout my life • for the propagation • and consolidation • of Ahmadiyyat in Islām, • and shall stand guard • in defense of • the institution of Khilāfat. • I shall not hesitate • to offer any sacrifice • in this regard. • Moreover, • I shall exhort my children • to always remain dedicated • and devoted to Khilāfat. • Inshā’Allah.
