Message from Sadr Ansarullah, USA

Dear Ansar:

I hope and pray that each and every Ahmadi is taking part and benefitting from the blessings of Ramadan. I also pray to Almighty Allah that He enable us to continue to offer greater sacrifices and to improve our spiritual status even after the month of Ramadan.

Most of you have heard by now that this year Majlis Ansarullah’s National Ijtema will be held at Columbus, Ohio. This change in venue presents a challenge for all of us. For some Majalis challenge will be to host the Ijtema for the first time; Majalis in the mid-west and the Great Lakes area will be expected to increase their attendance at the Ijtema; and Majalis on the east coast will face the challenge of travelling to attend this Ijtema. I hope and pray that the sense of sacrifice that we have gained during the month of Ramadan will enable us to overcome these challenges.

I humbly urge all Ansar members to make a resolve to attend this year’s Ijtema. Instead of just a short-lived sense of sacrifice during the month of Ramadan, take this renewed spirit of dedication even further. Come to the Ansar’s National Annual Ijtema and experience first-hand more of the true spirit of Islam and Ahmadiyyat! Those of you who have rarely or never attended an Annual Ijtema may benefit from talking to members who have attended this event in the past. They will inspire you to join in and not be influenced by those who are lethargic or prone to making excuses. Participation in annual ijtema’at is a time-honored tradition in our Jamaat. Naturally there are sacrifices to be made in order to attend but any effort made to win the pleasure of Allah, to try and make strides in our spiritual journey for His sake is never wasted. What an immense blessing!

Please do your best to find the time and enthusiasm to participate in the Ijtema this year. I am confident that, with prayers and Allah’s help, you will be more than satisfied that you did, Insha Allah.

Dr. Wajeeh Bajwa

National Ijtema and Shura

The 26th National Ansarullah Ijtema and 15th National Shura is being held on Friday, October 26 – Sunday, October 28, 2007 at Masjid Bait-un-Nasir in Columbus, Ohio. Ansar are urged to attend the National Ijtema and also encourage their fellow ansar brothers to attend this important event.
Tabligh Activities in Dallas Majlis

As directed by Hazrat Khalifatul Masih V (ayyadahullah), the Dallas majlis embarked upon the task of tabligh in May 2007 by visiting various small cities around Dallas. The first team consisted of three jama’at members led by the za’eeem majlis, Mujahid Mahmood. The team visited the First Baptist Church of Weston and attended their Sunday service. The team met with the pastor after the service and gave an introduction of the jama’at and stressed the need to engage in interfaith dialogue to understand each other’s faith better and remove any misperceptions. The Pastor responded positively and agreed to arrange a date for interfaith meeting with a format where each of the two communities would explain their faith before the audience and have a question and answer session.

The team also visited the Church of Christ in Blue Ridge and attended their service and had similar discussion with the Pastor and suggested an interfaith meeting. The interfaith meeting was held on June 2, 2007 which was attended by four members of the local jama’at and about ten members of the Church. A nasir, Suhail Kausar, delivered a lecture expounding the Islamic faith and introducing Ahmadiyyat. Afterwards, the Pastor spoke about the Christian faith. The meeting ended with a question and answer session. The meeting lasted for about two hours and was mutually appreciated to be useful. The two parties agreed to continue with similar interfaith dialogues.

The Dallas majlis is continuing its endeavors to visit and engage in such dialogues by visiting various communities around Dallas. Other majalis are encouraged to respond to the call of Hazoor (ayyadahullah) and explore such opportunities around their majalis.

Waqf of a Nasir

Dr. Anwar ud Din, a nasir of Columbus majlis, recently left for Pakistan to join the Tahir Heart Institute in Rabwah where he would be offering his services as a cardiologist.

Dr. Din is the son of late Dr. Zia ud Din, a Waqif-e-Zindagi (devotee of life), and late Rabia Begum, both of Kharian, Pakistan. Dr. Din’s family moved to Nigeria in the early 1960s where his father worked in Nigeria as a missionary doctor.

Dr. Din received his early education in Nigeria and then went to Pakistan to attend college. He received his Bachelor’s of Science degree from the Ta’leem-ul-Islam College in Rabwah. He then went back to Nigeria where he received his MBBS degree.

In 1981, Dr. Din devoted his life for the service of the jama’at. He worked at the Ahmadiyya Hospital in Kano, Nigeria for four years. He was then transferred to the Ahmadiyya Hospital in Appapa-Lagos, Nigeria for another four years. He moved to the United States in 1989 with his family to do his residency and fellowship at Marshall University in Huntington, West Virginia.

In 2000, he moved to Columbus, Ohio with his wife and four children where he worked with Grant Hospital as a cardiologist. His family stays in Columbus where his children are studying. May Allah accept the efforts of Dr. Din and his family in His way. Ameen.
