Message from Sadr Ansarullah, USA

Dear Ansar: اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَیْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللّٰهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ

A righteous believer is enjoined to adhere to brotherhood and to propagate it. This alone can foster love, affection and equality in a righteous community. The Holy Qur'an addresses all nations of the world on the basis of humanity: "O mankind We have created you from male and female; and We have made you into clans and tribes that you may recognize one another. Verily, the most honorable among you, in the sight of Allah, is he who is the most righteous among you. Surely, Allah is All Knowing, All-Aware." (Chapter: 49, Verse: 14)

Peace and security cannot be established until people of various nations and races understand that they are the children of Adam, are created from a male and female, and are equal. If one is better than the other, it is in terms of righteousness alone.

Islam says that all mankind is like a family and it can look after the peace and security of each other only if it lives like a caring family. This teaching did not just remain theoretical. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) put it all in practice. He loved the poor and the disadvantaged, freed the slaves, assigned the deprived their rights. Hadrat Bilal (may Allah be pleased with him) was a freed slave and on the day of Mecca's fall the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) prepared a flag and named it "Bilal". Chiefs of Mecca were told that they will be safe if they gather under Hadrat Bilal's (may Allah be pleased with him) flag. At his farewell sermon, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) declared, "All of you are equal. All men, whatever nation or tribe they belong to, and whatever station in life they may hold, are equal. An Arab possesses no superiority over the non-Arab, nor does a non-Arab over an Arab."

Today it is the duty of the community of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to establish this ideal society, foundation of which was laid fifteen hundred years ago by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him). This peaceful society can only be created through following the practices of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him).

May Almighty Allah accept our humble efforts and enable us to make this world a cradle of peace and harmony. May Allah enable us all to do so, Ameen.
