Message from Sadr Ansārullāh, USA

Dear Ansār: السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ

The Promised Messiah (peace be on him) has said: “All sincere souls who have entered the fold of this humble one should know that the purpose of pledging allegiance is to dampen worldly ardor, so that the heart is engulfed in the love of the Bountiful God and of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings be on him), and to develop such a state of detachment that the Final Journey does not seem an unwelcome prospect. But in order to achieve this, it is necessary to stay in my company and to spend a portion of one’s life in this cause, so that—if God Almighty so wills—through witnessing some definite signs, weakness, infirmity and tardiness may be overcome and perfect faith may be born, resulting in fervor and passionate ardor. One should always strive to achieve this goal and pray that God may grant this opportunity.” [Announcement, Asmāni Faisala (Heavenly Decree)].

Hadrat Khalīfatul Masīh Al-Khāmīs (may Allah be his support) in his Friday sermon of December 31, 2010 said, “if we are to get the beneficence of the Divine promises made with the Imām of the age, we need to do good works which will take us closer to God. We are required to put each commandment of God in practice, from the smallest to the highest, in accordance with our capacities. We will be part of the glad-tidings that God demonstrates to those who make sacrifices. God states: ‘As to those who believe and do good works, they will surely have a reward that will never end’ (The Holy Qur’ān, 41:9).” Hudūr (ayyadahullah) said, “after belief, good works are essential. God has declared the significance of good works as: ‘And give glad tidings to those who believe and do good works that for them are Gardens beneath which flow streams. Whenever they are given a portion of fruit therefrom, they will say: ‘This is what was given to us before,’ whereas only similar things shall be brought to them. And they will have therein mates perfectly pure, and therein will they abide.’ (The Holy Qur’ān, 2:26). The Promised Messiah elucidated that without good works, belief is of no use. If we are desirous of never-ending reward from God and acceptance of prayer, we need to do good works. God’s glad-tiding is for those who do good works.”

We should pray to Almighty Allah that we spend our lives in a way that makes us rightful members of the Community of the Promised Messiah (peace be on him) and each action of ours is to attain pleasure of God.

May Allah enable all of us to overcome weakness, infirmity and tardiness that have kept us from doing good work and attain nearness to Him, Amīn.

Trust in Allah

Anas relates that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) said: "He who on emerging from his house supplicates: I issue forth in the name of Allah, putting my trust in Him; there is no strength to resist evil and no power to do good save through Him; is greeted with: He is guided, is sufficed and saved, and Satan withdraws from him. One Satan says to another: How can you subdue one who is guided, is sufficed and is saved? (Abu Dawud)
