Dear Ansār:

The task of the revival of Islam is every Muslim’s responsibility. For this we need to pay attention to our own circumstances and improve our spiritual condition. Allāh says in the Holy Qurʾān:

And everyone has a goal which dominates him; vie, then, with one another in good works. Wherever you be, Allāh will bring you all together. Surely, Allāh has the power to do all that He wills. (The Holy Qurʾān, Chapter 2, Verse 149).

Question that is most commonly asked is “How can we do this?” In this regard Hadrat Mirza Bashiruddin Mahmood Ahmad, Khalifatul Masih II (may Allāh be pleased with him), gave following instructions to Maulānā Q. Abdullah, on the occasion of his departure for England as a missionary. The date of this letter is not given but is likely in the mid-thirties or forties.

“Study the Holy Qurʾān and the traditions [of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allāh be on him)] and have a perfect acquaintance with the writings of the Holy Founder [of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community]. Study the Christian literature and Christian theology thoroughly. It would be an advantage to make a constant study of some of the books on the exposition of the Law, for that is also very important, because you shall have to enlighten people there on the minute practical details of the Deen-i-Haq Law [Law of the True Religion, i.e., Shariʿa Law]. Let the people see and feel the unity of the Ahmadiyya Movement and the need for it. There should be no mincing of matters about the fact that Deen-i-Haq and Ahmadiyya Movement are not two different things. They are but two names for the same thing, try to efface from the minds of the people the idea that the Ahmadiyya Movement is only the name of a Society. Teach them tenets of Ahmadiyyat, which means Deen-i-Haq, i.e., to give up one’s desires and resign oneself to the will of God. The people of Europe do not hesitate even to question the existence of God. They wish to have religion according to their own way of thinking. With all their legitimate liberty and freedom in worldly concerns they must be made to recognize the necessity for submitting to Divine Law. Do not be over-anxious about the number of converts but be particularly solicitous for true converts. Try and use words that lead them on to [correct] actions.

Pray to God that this lion may tamely

submit to you. Pray to God whenever you are in any difficulty. If your need is immediate and urgent, and the time is too short for a reply from me, then post a letter to me and pray to God fervently. It is possible that you may meet with a solution of your difficulty even before the receipt of a reply from me. The ways of God are wonderful. He is omniscient and All-Powerful. Try to imbibe sufi ideas. Moderation in food, speech and sleep is a good remedy. Tahajjud [praying in the latter part of the night] is a good weapon against the materialistic influences of Europe, because people there retire to bed late in the night to wake up when the sun is high up. Go to bed immediately after you have said the Isha prayers. It would, of course, interfere a little with your missionary work but trust in God; he will make good your loss in another way. People will be drawn towards you of themselves. Visit the rural population and preach to the poor, the peasants and the laboring classes. These people would readily listen to the Word of God and develop spirituality more rapidly and effectively than the well-to-do classes, because the former are comparatively simpler and quicker to grasp the truth than the latter. Stay for a month or two somewhere near London at some little hamlet and there begin your work with a trust in God and then wait for the result. It is true that they are sometimes harsh even to rudeness, but when they will realize the truth; it will not be a half-hearted affair. Do not lose heart on account of their harshness. A patient never takes a medicine joyfully. Consult me before you undertake an important task. God be with you and preserve you against every evil influence and give you strength and power to do good deeds. May your words be inspiring. Bear in mind that England is a land of freedom and liberty. There may be some evil minded men intriguing against the British Government. See that you not only guard yourself against the evil influence of such men, but try to save others from falling victims to the same influence."

We should all try our best to act upon the advice given by Hadrat Mirza Bashiruddin Mahmood Ahmad, Khalifatul Masih II (may Allâh be pleased with him) as it applies to each and every Ahmadî Muslim living in the West. May Almighty Allâh enable all of us to focus on improving ourselves at every level and fulfilling the obligation of calling others to Almighty Allâh, Āmîn.

Offering Supererogatory Prayer for Suffering Ahmadīs

Addressing Ahmadīs of all the Jamā’ats around the world in his Friday sermon of December 3, 2011, Hadrat Khalifatul-Masih V (may Allāh be his support) drew attention to the Ahmadi brothers who are enduring hardship and persecution. Hudūr (may Allāh be his support) said that a true believer is the one who feels the suffering of his believer brother as his own, like the whole body feels the pain if a part of the body is in pain. Hudūr (may Allāh be his support) said that each Ahmadi should offer two Nafl (supererogatory Prayer) daily, solely for those Ahmadīs who are going through any torment due to their belief in Ahmadiyyat and are deprived of their civic and religious rights through vicious laws. Ansār are encouraged to say Labbaik to the call of our beloved Hudūr (may Allāh be his support) and offer two Nafl daily and pray to Almighty Allāh that the atrocities against Ahmadīs may be removed, Āmīn.
