Message from Şadr Majlis Anşārullāh, USA

Dear Anşār:

I hope and pray that each and every Aḥmādi Muslim is taking part in and benefitting from the blessings of Ramadān. I also pray to Almighty Allāh that He enable us to continue to offer greater sacrifices and to improve our spiritual status even after the month of Ramadān.

Most of you have heard by now that this year Majlis Anşārullāh's National Ijtimā' will be held at Baitur Rahmān Mosque, Silver Spring, MD from October 12 to 14, 2012, Inshā'llāh.

Participating and making Ijtimā‘ a success is every Nāṣir’s responsibility. Ijtimā‘ offers opportunity for every member to learn about true Islām. This gathering provides a forum for the earnest but friendly competitions while creating a brotherly relationship with members from other Majālis.

Most importantly attendance in the Ijtimā‘ provides an opportunity to spend time in the company of the righteous. The Holy Qur’ān has stated the benefits of keeping righteous company and the dangers of being in the company of those who have gone astray. The Holy Qur’ān says: “And keep thyself attached to those who call on their Lord morning and evening, seeking His pleasure; and let not thy eyes pass beyond them, seeking the adornment of the life of the world; and obey not him whose heart We have made heedless of Our remembrance and who follows his evil inclinations, and his case exceeds all bounds.” (Chapter 18 [Al-Kahf], Verse 29)

Hadrat Abu Hurairah (may Allāh be pleased with him) relates that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) said: “When a company foregathers for the remembrance of Allāh its members are surrounded by angels and are covered by mercy and comfort descends upon them and Allāh makes mention of them to those around Him.” (Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim).

The Promised Messiah (peace be on him) has stated about keeping company with the truthful and said: ‘The word Insān (human being) is actually derived from Unsān i.e. the collection of two affections. One affection of man is for God and the other is for human beings. Since a human being is closer to him and he finds him very near to himself and moreover he is his own species, he is very much influenced by him—and very quickly too. That is why the company of a perfect and righteous person grants man the Light which makes him see God and he is thus saved from sin.’ (Malfūţāt Vol. 3, p. 6 cited in “So Said the Promised Messiah” p. 117).

We have two options: 1)- We could choose to associate with those who Allāh dislikes and in turn ruin our own physical and spiritual beings or 2)- we can make friends with the righteous...

and as a result increase our own knowledge and love for Allāh to the extent that we may be the recipient of His Divine favors. It is interesting to note that the two types of people can never mix as the vast wisdom of the Holy Qur’ān states: “And the blind and the seeing are not alike, nor the darkness and light, nor the shade and heat, nor alike are the living and the dead. Surely, Allāh causes him to hear whom He pleases; and thou canst not make those to hear who are in the graves.”(Chapter 35 [Al-Fātir], Verses 20-24)

If we do not take heed of such a simple instruction, we will not only lose out on partaking of the blessings that Almighty Allāh, the Most Merciful, rains upon us but chances of going astray will increase.

I urge all Anṣār to make every effort to attend National Ijtimā’ that provides opportunity to be in the company of the righteous. May Allāh enable us all to do so, Āmīn.

I encourage each and every member to visit www.ansarusa.org and use the link that says: "Click here to register for the National Ijtima 2012" provided on the front page to register online for the Ijtimā’. Your online registration will enable us to make proper arrangements for all participants.

Please do your best to find the time and enthusiasm to participate in the Ijtimā’ this year. I am confident that, with prayers and Allāh’s help, you will be more than satisfied that you did, Inshā’llāh.
