Message from Şadr Majlis Anşarullâh, USA

Dear Anşar:

Unity is strength! The fundamental message of Islâm is the Unity of Allâh and the unity of mankind bound together by ties of practical brotherhood. This is the clarion call of Islâm which abhors strife, hatred, greed, selfishness, pride, and intolerance. The aim of every Nâşir should be to live his life in accordance with the following Qur’ânic injunction:

“Help one another in righteousness and piety.” (The Holy Qur’ân, 5 [Al-Mâ’idah]:3)

Islâm is a universal religion revealed by Allâh for the guidance of all mankind and is above personal bias, tribal prejudice, and ignorant sectarianism. It teaches that all human beings are equal and nobody is superior to another due to origin, color, genealogy, or race. The only difference in the sight of Allâh between individuals is their degree of righteousness. As Allâh says in the Holy Qur’ân:

“And the believers, men and women, are friends one of another. They enjoin good and forbid evil and observe Prayer and pay the Zakât and obey Allâh and His Messenger. It is these on whom Allâh will have mercy. Surely, Allâh is Mighty, Wise.” (The Holy Qur’ân, 9 [Al-Taubah]:71).

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allâh be on him) has said: “The faithful are like a single body. If his eye suffers, then his constitution will suffer; and if he has a headache, then his whole system will suffer.” (Muslim).

At another time, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allâh be on him) said: “A Muslim is the brother of another Muslim. He does not oppress him, nor does he leave him at the mercy of others.” (Muslim, Book 032, Number 6219)

On the need for unity and to purify ourselves, the Promised Messiah (peace be on him) has said in the clearest possible words:

“Only he has purified himself who has set right his relationship with both God and his fellow creatures, with both his Creator and his fellow creatures. We must discharge our obligations to both. God requires that we must live in practice every word we utter in affirmation of God. God is One, without associate. What we affirm with our tongues we must illustrate by our deeds, not ever reducing God to the status of man. We owe to our fellow creatures that we harbor no malice, hatred, prejudice, rancor, desire to harm, or intent against them to injure. You are still very distant from this spiritual station. Have you set right your personal relations with your brethren? I am afraid not. You have not given up complaints and neither counter complaints nor backbiting. You trample over other people's rights. God wants you to live like brothers and to function as parts of one organic whole. Thus alone can you attain spiritual bliss. If human beings cannot deal honestly with their own brothers, how can they with God? It is true that God's claim on our obedience is very great. But the measure...

of how pure your account is with God is how pure it is with His creatures. One who is not honest and sincere with men cannot be honest and sincere with God. To be honest and sincere is no small matter. It is something big and difficult. Sincere love is one thing, insincere and hypocritical love is quite another matter. When a believer falls ill, another believer goes and visits him to express his concern. If a believer dies, fellow believers join his funeral.

No questions should be raised over small matters. It is best if such things are ignored. God does not approve of your living at a distance from one another. Without true love, there is no Jamā’at—it is the end of the Jamā’at.” (Badr, 1908)

Let us resolve to unite and offer our God-given talents and our effort for the sake of our faith and the community we live in. I also urge every Nāṣir to resolve to strengthen pledge of allegiance to Khilāfat for the rest of our lives not only for your own sake but for the benefit of our future generation of Aḥmadi Muslims. May Almighty Allāh enable all of us to do our utmost in this regard, Āmīn.

Wa al-salam
