Message from Ṣadr Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA

Dear Anṣār:

This is the first month of 2013—Happy New Year! A new year offers everyone another chance to reflect on what they achieved during the past year and also reflect upon areas that need improvement. Close to seventy-five percent of individuals make resolutions at the start of the year, but only a small number (less than ten percent) actually implement the resolutions that they make.

Settings goals and resolutions is a great instrument to help us get our lives organized. However, we should note that there is no concept of “New Year Resolutions” within the teachings of Islām. Instead, a Muslim must be constantly waging the greatest Jihad and assessing his life, setting goals, and making efforts towards self-improvement rather than waiting for certain days during the year to do so.

The process of setting goals and resolutions requires that we actually take time to analyze where we stand and then determine what we are aiming for. Therefore, I humbly request everyone to take the time to know yourself better—identify your weaknesses and commit to eliminating them. Assess your strengths and use them for meaningful pursuits. Make sincere and worthwhile effort to embark on a personal transformation that will benefit you, your loved ones, the world around you, and, above all, will make your relationship with your Creator even stronger. If you choose not to take the necessary step then Almighty Allāh may also choose not to help you, for He says in the Holy Qur’ān:

“Để vì Allah không thay đổi một ơn nhiều đến một dân, trừ khi dân đó thay đổi tình trạng của mình, và biết rằng Allah nghe thấy, Allah biết.” (The Holy Qur’ān, 8 [Al-Anfāl]:54).

We should start by looking at the lives of all those who achieved remarkable success by being devoted to their goals. Among millions of examples, we see the most authoritative one in every aspect of the life of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) whose endless efforts and perseverance, with the help of Almighty Allāh, brought guidance to mankind at large. The results of his tireless struggle and sacrifice are evident through the numbers: more than 1.6 billion Muslims exist on this planet today.

Let us resolve to unite and offer our God-given talents and our effort for the sake of our faith and the community we live in. I also urge every member to resolve to strengthen your pledge of allegiance to Khilāfat for the rest of your lives not only for your own sake but for the benefit of our future generation of Aḥmadī Muslims. May Almighty Allāh enable all of us to do our utmost in this regard, Āmīn.

Wa al-salam

Ta’limul Qur’ān: Assigned Verses for Memorization

As prescribed in Ta’limul Qur’ān syllabus of Majlis Anšārullāh, USA, verses 36-41 and 52-58 of Sūrah Al-Nūr (Chapter 24) are to be memorized with split meaning during the year 2013. The following verse is assigned to be memorized with split meaning during the month of January.

[24:36] Allāh is the Light of the heavens and the earth. The similitude of His light is as a lustrous niche, wherein is a lamp. The lamp is in a glass. The glass is as it were a glittering star. It is lit from a blessed tree—an olive—neither of the east nor of the west, whose oil would well-nigh glow forth even though fire touched it not. Light upon light! Allāh guides to His light whomsoever He will. And Allāh sets forth parables to men, and Allāh knows all things full well.
