Message from Ṣadr Majlis

Dear Anṣār Brothers,
As-Salāmu ‘Alaikum Wa Raḥmatullāh

Among the many lessons we learned from the 2014 National Ijtimā‘ of Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA, here is perhaps the most profound one.

When the event comes to pass, you shall be divided into three groups. First, those on the right hand and how lucky are the ones on the right hand! Second, those on the left hand and how unlucky are those on the left hand. Third, the foremost; they are the foremost. They will have achieved nearness to God.

These are the words of Almighty Allāh (The Holy Qur‘ān, 56 [Al-Wāqī‘ah]:8-12) reminding us about the path which the companions of the Holy Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) treaded in order to achieve nearness to God, the path of being the foremost, the first.

Similarly, early this year, when we announced that the names of the first one hundred National Ijtimā‘ registrants would be sent to Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīh

(may Allāh be his helper) for prayers, the group of believers—whose names are presented on the next page—became the foremost by registering, in most cases, within minutes. Here we present their names for your prayers as well.

Since the regional and National officeholders of Majlis Anṣārullāh, USA had prior knowledge of this spiritual campaign, giving them a huge advantage, we did not count them towards this 100. But, I pray that may Allāh count them among the foremost because of their humility and hard work.

So coming back to the most profound lesson we learned: Nearness to God cannot be achieved by analyzing and critiquing while standing on the sidelines; it requires us to have faith and jump before others do. Because in this Jamā‘at of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him), others always will.

Was-Salām,

Faheem Younus Qureshi

A Memorable Incident

Jamil Choudhry, Central Jersey

All great people value time. I was posted in Kuwait in the 1980s. One day, I saw a small news in a local newspaper that Dr. Abdul Salam was visiting Kuwait. I said to myself that I must try and meet him. I was able to contact him on the phone. After introducing myself, I requested him to grant me a short meeting. He was kind enough to grant my wish and asked me to come the next day at 3:51 P.M.

Dr. Abdul Salam was staying at Sheraton Kuwait. Out of excitement, I arrived 10 minutes earlier than the appointed time and sent my visiting card at about 3:45 P.M.—6 minutes earlier than the time I was given. To my amazement, I got my card back with a note saying: “Your time is 3:51 P.M.” No doubt I was called in exactly at the appointed time.

This incident left a profound effect on me and taught me the value of time forever.

Allāh Answers Prayers

Anonymous

I, with my family and nieces, set out for a day at a local amusement park. As we jumped in the car, I did my routine check on Google Maps—1 hour and green. Great! Just what I thought for a sunny Saturday morning.

While driving down the highway, my wife was buying something on Amazon and I was making a hands-free phone call. I ignored the warning sign on the highway—“Delays ahead at Exit 55.” Sure enough, halfway through our trip, just before Exit 55, the highway was jammed and we had missed our last chance to take an alternate route. We were stuck. Worse yet, the traffic was at a standstill. Google Maps now estimated 1 hour and 15 minutes, and BLACK (and remember, we were already 30 minutes into the trip, so this represented a 45-minute total delay).

It was then that the kids in the car started complaining—really annoyed—as if we had let them down and didn’t plan better. As I knew there was no way out, I reminded the kids that only Almighty Allāh could get us there at a decent time. So, all of us started praying.

We began with Sūrah Fātiḥah, then moved on to Durūd Sharīf—and before we were done—we were back at 65 mph! Google Maps refresh—30 minutes and GREEN.

I felt as if the kids literally saw Almighty Allāh for the first time. May Allāh always keep my progeny in firm belief of their Lord, Āmīn.

Listening to the Friday Sermon

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) said: “When it is a Friday, the angels stand at the gate of the mosque and keep on writing the names of the persons coming to the mosque in succession according to their arrivals. The example of the one who enters the mosque in the earliest hour is that of one offering a camel (in sacrifice). The one coming next is like one offering a cow and then a ram and then a chicken and then an egg, respectively. When the Imām comes out (for Friday Prayer) they (that is, angels) fold their papers and listen to the sermon.” (Bukhārī)
