The Blessed Visit of Khalifatul-Masîh

Imran Hayee, Sadr Majlis

Dear Ansâr Brothers,
As-Salâmu `Alaikum Wa Raḥmatullâh

As you know that we were blessed with the presence of our beloved Imam Hadrat Khalifatul-Masîh V (may Allâh be his helper) here in the US for almost three weeks. Perhaps only some of you had a chance to meet Hûdûr in person but all of you were able to benefit from his presence in one form or the other. Hûdûr delivered three Friday sermons from the US soil in which he brought our attention to everything we ought to pay attention to at this time and age. He pointed out our weaknesses and he gave us the recipe to overcome those weaknesses. He motivated us by recognizing our tiny accomplishments but at the same time warned us not to be satisfied on what we have already achieved, rather continue to aim for achieving higher and higher goals. I hope and pray that may Almighty Allâh enable us all to truly understand Hûdûr’s divine guidance and transform our lives according to it.

Here is a lovely picture which reminds us of that blessed time which we spent with Hûdûr during his visit to the US. Many of you are not in this picture but if you truly transform your lives the way Hûdûr guided us to, I can assure you that you are indeed a vital part of this picture, even though physical eyes may not see that.

Wassalâm,
Imran Hayee
humbly serving Majlis Anşârullâh USA
Your wish is our command

In a meeting with National ‘Āmila members and Nāzimīn A’lā of Majlīs Anṣārullāh USA during his recent visit to the US, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfātul-Masīh V (may Allāh be his helper) expressed his desire that Anṣār regularly read Al-Ḥakam—Jamā’at’s very first newspaper that started in the lifetime of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him) and now launched again. Al-Ḥakam is available online at alhakam.org.

Let us all say Labbaik to our Imām’s desire by start reading Al-Ḥakam on a regular basis to stay informed and be the recipients of Allāh’s blessings by responding to the call of Khalīfātul-Masīḥ.

A Perfect Eid Gift

Baltimore Majlīs

Franck, a 20-year-old student, converted to Islām in January 2018. At the beginning of Ramadān, he was looking for a mosque and found Baitus-Samad Mosque in Roseland, MD on Google. He sent a text to the Imām and Ṣadr Jamā’at, quickly connecting with them and scheduling a visit to the mosque. He lives far from the mosque, so he walked for 45 minutes to get there. Franck came to the mosque at 11 AM and waited for about two hours for someone to show up. He then stayed at the mosque all day, spent time with Imām Abdullah Dibba, offered his Prayers, and left at 11 PM. He insisted that he wanted to sign the Bai’at that same day, and he did. Alḥamdulillāh!

He had a bike that he used to get to the mosque during Ramadān. When someone stole his bike, he again made the 45-minute walk to Baitus-Samad without a single complaint. Upon noticing this, a Khādim offered to give Franck ride to the mosque. On ‘Id-ul-Fitr, Majlīs Anṣārullāh Baltimore purchased a bike for Franck so he could be connected to the mosque more easily—a perfect Eid gift. When asked about his stolen bike, Franck simply replied, “The person who took the bike might have needed it more than me.” Alḥamdulillāh!

May Almighty Allāh make him a true representation of the Jamā’at of the Promised Messiah (may peace be on him), Āmin.
